School Board Approves 6.3 Mill Levy For Ballot

The Circleville City Board of Education at its regular meeting Tuesday night unanimously passed a resolution to place a 6.3 mill levy on the ballot at the Nov. 4 general election.

This represents a reduction from the 6.7 mill levy requested last May. The reduced amount is requested due to a slight increase expected from state funds under recently passed legislation by the General Assembly of Ohio. The reduction of the levy to 6.3 mills will still provide a sound financial basis for the operation of city schools under these circumstances.

The Board pointed out that they were making every effort to keep the requested increase to a minimum and would utilize the small increase from State funds to make up for the reduction of the four tenths of a mill previously requested.

Also pointed out was the fact that the school millage has been reduced by .7 mill due to bond retirement millage reduction. Circleville City residents will realize another one-mill reduction due to the city not renewing an expiring levy.

THE critical necessity of the levy was reviewed by the Board and the fact that it must pass in 1969 to realize the funds during 1970 was emphasized.

Failure of the levy during this year (1969) will result in a much higher millage, possibly nine or ten mills, being requested in 1970 to make up for funds lost during 1970 if the levy does not pass, the board noted. Current predictions indicate a deficit of $278,109 in 1970.

Approval of the levy will offset this deficit as pointed out at the Budget Hearing by Marvin Rhoades, county auditor, when she spoke of the need for the additional levy.

The Board expressed the hope that every citizen will acquaint himself with the need and lend support to insuring a continuing quality education for the Circleville city schools. Passage of the levy in November will not only meet the needs in adequate time, but will prevent an educational crisis, which will cost much more at a future date. The Board emphasized the fact that a minimum effort now will prevent a much higher increase at a later date.

In other board action Tuesday, it was recommended that the charge for cafeteria lunches for the school year be 32 cents for students and 40 cents for adults. This rate is to be carried through September and October.

The board decided to evaluate the costs of lunches at the end of the two month period to determine if a rate increase would be in order. The system has lost money in the past on school lunches.

THE George W. Van Camp Construction firm has been awarded contracts to add blacktop surfaces.

The board awarded the contracts for one inch of blacktopping in the Atwater School court and the parking lot and 1 1/2 inches in areas with holes. The job was bid at $1,360.

Van Camp will blacktop the Mound roof curb for $325 and seal the Atwater basketball court for $135.

The north side of the old gym at the Junior High building will be sealed for $105 and the north side of the cafeteria at the junior high building will be sealed for $180.

Paul Roan, representing the City Health Department, requested that the school board consider paying an additional amount of money for the services of the health nurse. The board tabled the matter until January 1970 because no additional funds were available.

The Paul Brown Insurance Co., will provide additional insurance to include comprehensive insurance on five school-owned vehicles, in other board action.

BIDS were opened July 29 for a new school bus. Tuesday, the board awarded the contract, subject to the State Department of Education approval, to Edstrom Dodge for a 1970, 66

Soviet-Red Chinese Clash Reported In Sinkiang Area

BACK IN THE OLD ROUTINE — Before leaving on a fast cross-country tour climaxed by a huge state banquet given in their honor in Los Angeles by President Nixon, the three Apollo 11 Moononauts got in a little home life at the Space Center in Houston, Tex. Moon Crew Starts Day Of Parades

NEW YORK (AP)—America's moon voyagers came to a tumultuous hero's welcome in New York today, touched down at the foot of Wall Street and began their triumphal and historic motorcade through the city as ticker tape swirled in the air.

Tugboats dotted the East River as the astronauts arrived in Manhattan by helicopter after landing at Kennedy Airport at 9:45 a.m., EDT, the start of a massive, cross-country day of celebration that would take them westward later to Chicago and Los Angeles.

This was no Sea of Tranquility they came to on this beautiful, warm and sunny day—it was New York at its fullest, its throngs hailing the moonmen whom earthbound Americans soared with in spirit on one of the epic adventures of the ages.

Astronauts Neil A. Armstrong, 39; Edwin E. Aldrin Jr., 39, and Michael Collins, 38, were joined in their journey through the city and across the nation by their wives and children.

"This is one of New York City's great moments," said Mayor John V. Lindsay in a statement.

"We have honored many voyagers before—men who sailed around the world, men who flew alone across the ocean.

"But today we honor three men who forged the first link between earth and the stars. Today we honor three men who have affirmed the best we have within us.

"All that New York has given today—its cheers, its praise, its medals, its glory—is dwarfed by what you three men have done."

Armstrong, Aldrin and Collins climbed into a limousine with Lindsay and Dr. Thomas Paine, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, at the Wall Street Heliport for the ride to City Hall.

The astronauts waved to onlookers. Behind them, fireboats sprayed fountains of water into the air. The tugboats sounded their horns in welcome.

Oddly, there was silence at first, as the moonmen stepped onto the pad from their Marine Corps helicopter. Then the horns and whistles began. The silence turned to lusty cheering as the motorcade began moving slowly through Wall Street amid the traditional ticker tape.

Viet Attacks Drop Sharply; Losses Heavy

U.S. Command Expects More Assaults Soon

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong and North Vietnamese attacks dropped off more than 90 per cent today after the heaviest fighting in three months left more than 1,500 of the enemy and more than 200 allied soldiers dead.

Despite what American officers termed the "first high point of the Communist command's fall campaign," the withdrawal of 25,000 U.S. troops announced by President Nixon continued. The U.S. Command announced that 3,600 more men were leaving this week, including the remaining 2,000 men of the 9th Marine Regiment, a squadron of 14 Marine helicopters and the last antiaircraft missile battery in South Vietnam.

This will bring the total withdrawn to 17,200, leaving 7,800 to be pulled out by the end of the month.

U.S. headquarters reported 24 enemy rocket and mortar attacks Tuesday night on allied bases and towns. Nine caused damage or casualties, including three Americans killed and 25 wounded.

The U.S. Command said there were no new ground attacks during the night on American troops, but South Vietnamese spokesmen reported three small infantry assaults, two in the Mekong Delta south of Saigon and the third in the central highlands.

In their wave of assaults Tuesday, North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops shelled 128 towns or military posts across the country and made 14 ground attacks.

A U.S. communique said American forces alone killed 764 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops in large-scale ground fighting, while 69 Americans were killed and 415 wounded. But other sources put the number of enemy dead at more than 1,500, the number of Americans killed at more than 100 and the Saigon government's loss at 107 killed.

The large-scale enemy attack broke a two-month battlefield lull and touched off speculation that the enemy might be launching a major fall campaign. Although this accelerated tempo was not maintained, U.S. analysts did not expect it to be. Instead they anticipate periodic "highpoints" followed by slack days or weeks.

Northern Ireland Outbreak Worst In Past 30 Years

LONDON (AP) — Northern Ireland's Protestant government today banned all marches and outdoor meetings after a Protestant parade touched off the worst violence in the state in more than 30 years.

There was no immediate reaction from the Roman Catholics, whose Ancient Order of Hibernians planned a march in the small town of Dungiven Friday. Protestant militants led by the Rev. Ian Paisley had planned another parade Saturday in Newry, a predominantly Catholic town.

Home Minister Robert Porter issued the ban after Catholics, Protestants and the police battled through the night in Londonderry. More than 300 persons were injured.

The mobs set fire to houses and shops and bombarded police with rocks and gasoline bombs. The police battled back with tear smoke grenades thrown from armored cars as they smashed through street barricades. Police said the gas was a mild variety, and it had little effect on the rioters.

The latest bout of religious violence was set off by Roman Catholics stoning a parade of 15,000 Protestants. The parade, which Northern Ireland's Protestant government refused to ban despite the threat of violence, commemorated the siege of Derry in 1689, when the Protestants held off the Catholic forces of King James II.

The fighting also spilled over into surrounding towns and villages but Belfast, the capital of Northern Ireland, was quiet. Clashes were reported in Strabane, Dungannon, Coalisland and Newry.

British troops stood by at two bases on the city's outskirts and at Omagh, 30 miles south. But the state government did not ask them to help, and the British government in London did not intervene.

At the height of the battle Prime Minister James Chichester-Clark conferred with key members of the state Cabinet and police chiefs in Belfast. They were understood to have decided then to authorize the use of the tear smoke, something unheard of in the history of civil disorder in Britain.

Lennon Dad Shot Down; Killer Flees

LOS ANGELES (AP) — William H. Lennon has been killed by a mysterious gunman only weeks from achieving his greatest ambition—to see his four singing daughters in their own television show.

The 54-year-old father of 11 was shot down Tuesday at the Marina Del Rey golf range, where he was an instructor.

Police investigators, who said they had no clues to the killer's motive or identity, received this account from witnesses:

Lennon was standing by his car when a man carrying a rifle approached. An argument took place, followed by a struggle for the gun.

A shot went wild. Lennon, shouting "Help!", started running across the parking lot. The killer, a tall, bearded white man about 35, fired twice and Lennon fell. The gunman walked closer and fired a third time.

The killer, wearing blue trousers and a green sweater, fled in a small blue and white car.

The new Lennon Sisters series, to be aired over ABC-TV Friday evenings starting Sept. 26, will be called "The Lennon Sisters' Hour." A spokesman said the first five episodes were already in tape.

Blanche Becomes Tropical Storm

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Tropical Storm Blanche moved through the north Atlantic today at a pace expected to render it important.

"It'll probably gradually weaken and it might never make it to western Europe," said forecaster Paul Hebert at the National Hurricane Center in Miami.

Blanche carried winds of 65 to 70 miles an hour at last report, although reported losing strength. Hurricane force is 74 m.p.h.

Student Loans Hang In Limbo

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the start of college classes only weeks away, Congress has left the guaranteed student loan program hanging in limbo.

The Senate voted 92-1 Tuesday to revive the student loans, but the House couldn't resolve a squabble over student rioting and will delay action until after Sept. 3 when the congressional vacation ends.

Sponsors of the bill argued that passage this month was essential so college-bound students could get the money necessary for many of them to continue their education.

College officials have estimated that 200,000 students may be denied aid for the coming college year if Congress fails to act.

The Senate bill makes Aug. 15 the effective date in the hope that banks will trust Congress to take final action on continuing the loan guarantees.

Fearing another fight over campus riots, House sponsors refused Tuesday to take the bill to the floor under the usual rules permitting amendments.

Members wanting to add anti-riot provisions refused to allow the bill to be taken up under a no-amendment arrangement.

The loan program is in trouble because the cost of borrowing money has risen to 8 1/2 per cent interest or higher, while the student loans have a 7 per cent interest ceiling.

Banks have been turning down student loans, because of the interest ceiling. The Senate bill would have permitted banks to realize 10 per cent interest through subsidy payments.

ABA Adopts Ethics Code, Urge Crash Suit Overhaul

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The American Bar Association has adopted a new code of ethics for lawyers and proposed a coast-to-coast overhaul of the way automobile accident claims are settled in court.

The ethics code, the first major change in the canons in 60 years, bars contingent fees in criminal cases, restricts what lawyers can say to the press about pending cases and encourages participating in legal aid programs for the poor.

The auto accident plan, which depends on state legislatures for implementation, would cut down delays in settlement by setting up uniform court systems and by making it easier for juries to reach verdicts.

Cambodians Get New Government

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — The Cambodian parliament elected a new government today, headed by Gen. Lon Nol as president.

The action, by a 72-0 vote, has no effect on the status of Prince Norodom Sihanouk, the chief of state. Parliament is overwhelmingly controlled by his Sang Kum Movement, and he had demanded a new government to come to grips with what he termed a grave economic and financial situation.

Both actions were taken Tuesday by the ABA's House of Delegates, a 297-member policy-making body.

The same group rejected a committee proposal that it endorse a bill by Sen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., to establish a new commission for ousting unfit federal judges.

The committee, headed by Theodore Voorhees, a Washington, D.C., lawyer, was itself divided, though a majority backed the Tydings bill in principle. Lawyers B.B. Gullett, of Nashville, Tenn., and Earl Q. Gray, of Ardmore, Okla., led a successful floor fight to put off further consideration until next February, when the ABA meets again.

At present, a judge can be removed only through impeachment.

The auto reparations proposal would scrap the "contributory negligence" approach to settlements. These prevent an accident victim from recovering if the defense can prove the victim contributed to the accident in the slightest way.

Instead, the Wisconsin system of "comparative negligence" would be used. A victim would recover if the jury decided the defendant was more negligent than the victim. The jury would cut down the settlement proportionately on the victim's negligence.

New Satellite Spins Out Of Control

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — With its chances of survival rated "a real cliffhanger" for the next two weeks, a $12 million experimental satellite tumbled around earth today while engineers planned ways to bring it under control.

Launched Tuesday, the 1,960-pound craft—called ATS 5 for fifth Applications Technology Satellite—ended up in the right orbit but on the wrong side of earth and began spinning end-over-end.

Despite the problems, Robert J. Darrey, chief of the ATS office at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's

Goddard Space Flight Center, rated chances as "pretty damn good" that the spacecraft can be straightened out and shifted to its desired station over the Pacific 600 miles west of South America.

An attempt to regain control probably will not take place for two weeks, however, and another official predicted "it'll be a real cliffhanger" until then.

Packed with apparatus for 3 experiments including extendable booms nearly as long as a football field, the satellite was designed to test ideas for spacecraft of the future.

If successful, one of three communications experiments aboard the payload could pave the way for satellites to relay high-frequency radio signals between air traffic controllers and transoceanic jets and pinpoint the aircraft's location over areas out of range of ground-based radars.

Another, called a millimeter wave experiment, was to test radio frequencies higher than any yet used in space communications to see whether they could be put to work in future television relay or military satellites.

The thin booms, which would make the spacecraft measure 253 feet long if fully extended, were to experiment with a theory that gravity can act on an appropriately shaped satellite to keep one side always toward earth, much as the same face of the moon always looks at this planet.

The flight plan called for the satellite to settle in a stationary circular orbit 22,300 miles high. At that altitude, a spacecraft's orbital speed matches earth's rotation, keeping the satellite over the same ground area.

Spacecraft problems forced flight controllers to trigger the satellite's motor 11 hours sooner than planned, however, positioning the craft in the right orbit but over the Indian Ocean rather than the eastern Pacific.

Both Nations Claim Invasion By Other Side

TOKYO (AP) — Fighting broke out between Soviet and Chinese troops today on the frontier of Sinkiang Province, home of Peking's nuclear arsenal and missile-testing grounds. Red China charged that several hundred Soviet troops under cover of two helicopters invaded Sinkiang and there were many Chinese casualties.

The Soviet government a little later charged that Chinese troops penetrated Russian territory and there were casualties. The nationality of these was not stated.

The official Soviet news agency Tass reported that the Chinese were thrown back into their own territory and two of their officers were detained. It said the clash occurred near Semipalatinsk in Kazakhstan across from Sinkiang.

A Chinese language broadcast by Radio Peking said more than 10 tanks and armored cars were among the forces that penetrated more than a mile into Sinkiang, site of Red China's nuclear testing grounds.

Chinese border troops went into action and in the following skirmish several Chinese border patrolmen were killed or injured and several Chinese troops were encircled, the broadcast claimed.

Then the Russians sent in more troops, the broadcast continued, and further clashes were expected.

The fighting centered in the Tieliekt area of Yumin County on Sinkiang's northwestern border with the Soviet Union, Radio Peking said.

The Foreign Ministry in Peking lodged a protest with the Soviet Embassy, denouncing the "intrusion" and demanding the immediate withdrawal of the Russian troops. Otherwise the Soviet Union must face the consequences of the action, the note said.

Sinkiang Province, in the northwest corner of China, long has been a trouble spot. The Russians have accused the Chinese of initiating border incidents there. The Red Chinese have leveled similar charges and accused the Russians of kidnapping residents in the province.

Sinkiang has long been of interest to the Russians. They practically took over the province to exploit its vast uranium resources early in the days of Communist rule in China but later relinquished exploitation rights there.

Sinkiang is the site of Lop Nor, the Chinese nuclear testing ground and missile center.

Urge Money Be Withheld

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights has proposed that federal aid be withheld from state and local governments which restrict employment opportunities for minority groups.

The recommendation was included Tuesday in a report accusing state and local agencies of being bastions of employment bias and charging the federal government with failing to exert leadership in correcting inequities.

Entitled "For All the People By All the People," the report was based on a study of employment practices in seven key metropolitan areas where, the commission said, "the domestic crisis facing the nation is most critical."

In all seven areas, the report said, they found the "problems of racial tension, unemployment, underemployment, inadequate housing and increasing violence . . ."

Nevertheless, the commission said, "state and local governments consciously and overtly discriminate in hiring and promoting minority group members" while the federal government maintains a hands-off policy.

Sen. McCarthy Niece To Marry Singer

WILLMAR, Minn. (AP) — Peter Yarrow of the Peter, Paul and Mary singing group and Mary E. McCarthy, niece of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., obtained a marriage license Tuesday. It was understood they would wed in September.

Yarrow, 30, and his fiancée, 22, met when she was campaigning to obtain the Democratic presidential nomination for her uncle last year. Miss McCarthy recently had been working as a receptionist in New York.

Viet Attacks Drop Sharply; Losses Heavy

U.S. Command
Expects More
Assaults Soon

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong and North Vietnamese attacks dropped off more than 90 per cent today after the heaviest fighting in three months left more than 1,500 of the enemy and more than 200 allied soldiers dead.

Despite what American officers termed the "first high point of the Communist command's fall campaign," the withdrawal of 25,000 U.S. troops announced by President Nixon continued. The U.S. Command announced that 3,600 more men were leaving this week, including the remaining 2,000 men of the 9th Marine Regiment, a squadron of 14 Marine helicopters and the last anti-aircraft missile battery in South Vietnam.

This will bring the total withdrawn to 17,200, leaving 7,800 to be pulled out by the end of the month.

U.S. headquarters reported 24 enemy rocket and mortar attacks Tuesday night on allied bases and towns. Nine caused damage or casualties, including three Americans killed and 25 wounded.

The U.S. Command said there were no new ground attacks during the night on American troops, but South Vietnamese spokesmen reported three small infantry assaults, two in the Mekong Delta south of Saigon and the third in the central highlands.

In their wave of assaults Tuesday, North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops shelled 128 towns or military posts across the country and made 14 ground attacks.

A U.S. communique said American forces alone killed 764 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops in large-scale ground fighting, while 69 Americans were killed and 415 wounded. But other sources put the number of enemy dead at more than 1,500, the number of Americans killed at more than 100 and the Saigon government's loss at 107 killed.

The large-scale enemy attack broke a two-month battlefield lull and touched off speculation that the enemy might be launching a major fall campaign. Although this accelerated tempo was not maintained, U.S. analysts did not expect it to be. Instead they anticipate periodic "highpoints" followed by slack days or weeks.

Student Loans Hang In Limbo

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the start of college classes only weeks away, Congress has left the guaranteed student loan program hanging in limbo.

The Senate voted 92-1 Tuesday to revive the student loans, but the House couldn't resolve a squabble over student rioting and will delay action until after Sept. 3 when the congressional vacation ends.

Sponsors of the bill argued that passage this month was essential so college-bound students could get the money necessary for many of them to continue their education.

College officials have estimated that 200,000 students may be denied aid for the coming college year if Congress fails to act.

The Senate bill makes Aug. 15 the effective date in the hope that banks will trust Congress to take final action on continuing the loan guarantees.

Fearing another fight over campus riots, House sponsors refused Tuesday to take the bill to the floor under the usual rules permitting amendments. Members wanting to add anti-riot provisions refused to allow the bill to be taken up under a no-amendment arrangement.

The loan program is in trouble because the cost of borrowing money has risen to 8½ per cent interest or higher, while the student loans have a 7 per cent interest ceiling.

Banks have been turning down student loans, because of the interest ceiling. The Senate bill would have permitted bankers to realize 10 per cent interest through subsidy payments.

ABA Adopts Ethics Code, Urge Crash Suit Overhaul

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The American Bar Association has adopted a new code of ethics for lawyers and proposed a coast-to-coast overhaul of the way automobile accident claims are settled in court.

The ethics code, the first major change in the canons in 60 years, bars contingent fees in criminal cases, restricts what lawyers can say to the press about pending cases and encourages participating in legal aid programs for the poor.

The auto accident plan, which depends on state legislatures for implementation, would cut down delays in settlement by setting up uniform court systems and by making it easier for juries to reach verdicts.

Both actions were taken Tuesday by the ABA's House of Delegates, a 297-member policy-making body.

The same group rejected a committee proposal that it endorse a bill by Sen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., to establish a new commission for ousting unfit federal judges.

The committee, headed by Theodore Voorhees, a Washington, D.C., lawyer, was itself divided, though a majority backed the Tydings bill in principle. Lawyers B.B. Gullett, of Nashville, Tenn., and Earl Q. Gray, of Ardmore, Okla., led a successful floor fight to put off further consideration until next February, when the ABA meets again.

At present, a judge can be removed only through impeachment.

The auto reparations proposal would scrap the "contributory negligence" approach to settlements. These prevent an accident victim from recovering if the defense can prove the victim contributed to the accident in the slightest way.

Instead, the Wisconsin system of "comparative negligence" would be used. A victim would recover if the jury decided the defendant was more negligent than the victim. The jury would cut down the settlement proportionately on the victim's negligence.

Roundtown

A PHONE call by a county resident to the Herald office Tuesday afternoon concerning the vacant lot on W. Main St. agreed it was a safety hazard and unsightly in its present condition.

But more vividly, according to the caller, it is a grim daily reminder to community residents who lost members of their families or friends in the March, 1967 fire.

SPEAKING of safety hazards, several complaints have been registered concerning repair work in the center lane of N. Court St., south of Pleasant St. . . . A large hole in the street has been barricaded and the only warning is a single flashing light at the site . . .

EVER hear of a thank-you-ma'am? Ross Spalding was throwing his weight around with a group of golfers Tuesday in etymology and astronomical methods of telling time when he claimed "thank-you ma'am" was a noun and listed in Webster as such. Sure enough, it is a "small ridge or hollow made, usually diagonally, across a road, especially on a hillside to deflect water. It may cause a person driving over it to bob as if bowing."

AMBULANCE drivers have problems . . . Air-conditioned cars with radios or tape recorders turned on and the windows all closed — Operators of these cars cannot hear outside noise unless it is extremely loud and ambulance drivers have been told to use a siren only when absolutely necessary . . . How are they to know when it is necessary? . . . Recently a woman in Columbus was killed in a similar situation.

Urge Money Be Withheld

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights has proposed that federal aid be withheld from state and local governments which restrict employment opportunities for minority groups.

The recommendation was included Tuesday in a report accusing state and local agencies of being bastions of employment bias and charging the federal government with failing to exert leadership in correcting inequities.

Entitled "For All the People By All the People," the report was based on a study of employment practices in seven key metropolitan areas where, the commission said, "the domestic crisis facing the nation is most critical."

In all seven areas, the report said, were found the "problems of racial tension, unemployment, underemployment, inadequate housing and increasing violence . . ."

Nevertheless, the commission said, "state and local governments consciously and overtly discriminate in hiring and promoting minority group members" while the federal government maintains a hands-off policy.

Lenon Dad Shot Down; Killer Flees

LOS ANGELES (AP) — William H. Lennon has been killed by a mysterious gunman only weeks from achieving his greatest ambition—to see his four singing daughters in their own television show.

The 54-year-old father of 11 was shot down Tuesday at the Marina Del Rey golf range, where he was an instructor.

Police investigators, who said they had no clues to the killer's motive or identity, received this account from witnesses:

Lennon was standing by his car when a man carrying a rifle approached. An argument took place, followed by a struggle for the gun.

A shot went wild. Lennon, shouting "Help!", started running across the parking lot. The killer, a tall, bearded white man about 35, fired twice and Lennon fell. The gunman walked closer and fired a third time.

The killer, wearing blue trousers and a green sweater, fled in a small blue and white car.

The new Lennon Sisters service, to be aired over ABC-TV Friday evenings starting Sept. 26, will be called "The Lennon Sisters' Hour." A spokesman said the first five episodes were already in tape.

Blanche Becomes Tropical Storm

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Tropical Storm Blanche moved through the north Atlantic today at a pace expected to render it impotent.

"It'll probably gradually weaken and it might never make it to western Europe," said forecaster Paul Hebert at the National Hurricane Center in Miami.

Blanche carried winds of 65 to 70 miles an hour at last report, although reported losing strength. Hurricane force is 74 m.p.h.

New Satellite Spins Out Of Control

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — With its chances of survival rated "a real cliffhanger" for the next two weeks, a $12 million experimental satellite tumbled around earth today while engineers planned ways to bring it under control.

Launched Tuesday, the 1,960-pound craft—called ATS 5 for fifth Applications Technology Satellite—ended up in the right orbit but on the wrong side of earth and began spinning end-over-end.

Despite the problems, Robert J. Darrey, chief of the ATS office at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's

Goddard Space Flight Center, rated chances as "pretty damn good" that the spacecraft can be straightened out and shifted to its desired station over the Pacific 600 miles west of South America.

An attempt to regain control probably will not take place for two weeks, however, and another official predicted "it'll be a real cliffhanger" until then.

Packed with apparatus for 3 experiments including extendable booms nearly as long as a football field, the satellite was designed to test ideas for spacecraft of the future.

If successful, one of three communications experiments

aboard the payload could pave the way for satellites to relay high-frequency radio signals between air traffic controllers and transoceanic jets and pinpoint the aircraft's location over areas out of range of ground-based radars.

Another, called a millimeter wave experiment, was to test radio frequencies higher than any yet used in space communications to see whether they could be put to work in future television relay or military satellites.

The thin booms, which would make the spacecraft measure 253 feet long if fully extended, were to experiment with a theory that gravity can act on an appropriately shaped satellite to keep one side always toward earth, much as the same face of the moon always looks at this planet.

The flight plan called for the satellite to settle in a stationary circular orbit 22,300 miles high. At that altitude, a spacecraft's orbital speed matches earth's rotation, keeping the satellite over the same ground area.

Spacecraft problems forced flight controllers to trigger the satellite's motor 11 hours sooner than planned, however, positioning the craft in the right orbit but over the Indian Ocean rather than the eastern Pacific.

Sen. McCarthy Niece To Marry Singer

WILLMAR, Minn. (AP) — Peter Yarrow of the Peter, Paul and Mary singing group and Mary E. McCarthy, niece of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., obtained a marriage license Tuesday. It was understood they would wed in September.

Yarrow, 30, and his fiancée, 22, met when she was campaigning to obtain the Democratic presidential nomination for her uncle last year. Miss McCarthy recently had been working as a receptionist in New York.

Expect Haynsworth To Get Nomination To High Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. is reported by Senate sources to be President Nixon's choice to fill the Supreme Court vacancy created by the resignation of Abe Fortas.

Sources say Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell researched the rulings of circuit court judges before recommending the elevation of Haynsworth from chief judge of the 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond, Va., to a seat on the nation's highest tribunal.

Fortas quit in mid-May amid a controversy over his ties to the family foundation of jailed financier Louis E. Wolfson.

Haynsworth, a Democrat who was born in South Carolina, declines to discuss the report of the pending nomination. He told a reporter who reached him Tuesday at his Greenville, S.C., home: "I can't answer anything that will cause you to guess." He added that if and when there is an announcement on Fortas' successor "it is up to the White House to make it."

A Senate source cautioned that a last-minute switch was always possible. Others most frequently mentioned include California Supreme Court Justice

Business To Be Good For Liquor, Smoke Shops

Pickaway County cigarette merchants and the local state liquor store expected a heavy volume of business this weekend as smokers and drinkers stock up to postpone their contribution to a pending tax increase.

Gov. James A. Rhodes was expected to sign legislation Monday raising the cigarette tax from 7 cents a pack to 10 cents a pack and boosting the liquor and wine gallonage taxes.

The liquor tax hike will

Expect Haynsworth To Get Nomination To High Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. is reported by Senate sources to be President Nixon's choice to fill the Supreme Court vacancy created by the resignation of Abe Fortas.

Sources say Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell recommended the rulings of circuit court judges before recommending the elevation of Haynsworth from chief judge of the 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond, Va., to a seat on the nation's highest tribunal.

Fortas quit in mid-May amid a controversy over his ties to the family foundation of jailed financier Louis E. Wolfson.

Haynsworth, a Democrat who was born in South Carolina, declines to discuss the report of the pending nomination. He told a reporter who reached him Tuesday at his Greenville, S.C., home: "I can't answer anything that will cause you to guess."

He added that if and when there is an announcement on Fortas' successor "it is up to the White House to make it."

A Senate source cautioned that a last-minute switch was always possible. Others most frequently mentioned include California Supreme Court Justice Louis H. Burke, former American Bar Association President Lewis F. Powell Jr. of Richmond, Va.; Judge Henry J. Friendly Jr. of the 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, New York, and Judge Charles D. Breitel of the New York State Court of Appeals.

Haynsworth, 56, a graduate of Furman University and Harvard Law School, was named to the circuit court in 1957 by then-President Dwight D. Eisenhower and has been chief judge since 1964. He is described as fitting the mold for the type of Supreme Court justice Nixon wants.

Business To Be Good For Liquor, Smoke Shops

Pickaway County cigarette merchants and the local state liquor store expected a heavy volume of business this weekend as smokers and drinkers stock up to postpone their contribution to a pending tax increase.

Gov. James A. Rhodes was expected to sign legislation Monday raising the cigarette tax from 7 cents a pack to 10 cents a pack and boosting the liquor and wine gallonage taxes.

The liquor tax hike will average 25 cents a fifth at the retail level, while levies on wine, champagne and vermouth will be increased anywhere from 12 to 30 cents a gallon.

The last-minute rush on liquor and cigarettes may continue through Monday, since the tax hike is not expected to take effect until the opening of business Tuesday, according to G. W. Porterfield, state tax commissioner.

Porterfield predicted cigarette sales will drop off immediately after the tax hike takes effect as smokers either quit for a while or wade through their hoarded cartons bought at the old tax rate. He expects business as normal following that.

Some local cigarette wholesalers with a large volume of vending machine sales will begin converting the dispensers for a higher per pack price Thursday.

Prices in some machines may go as high as 50 cents a pack. Most cigarette vendors plan to hike prices next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Donald D. Cook, director of the Department of Liquor Control, said the tax increase will require him to put his employees at the 296 state liquor stores on overtime Sunday and Monday to change the prices of the beverages in stock.

He noted that the prices must be changed on about 970 brands of liquor.

The General Assembly estimated annual revenue at $34 million but Cook said sales will drop off as buyers resist the tax hike. He said that $30 million a year would be a more reasonable estimate.

Cook said he expects more liquor bootlegging, since the tax increase will put Ohio's liquor prices above those of Kentucky, West Virginia and Michigan.

Local Young Republicans At Confab

Eugene H. Dowler and Miss Marilyn Sprenger have returned from attending the 1969 Ohio League of Young Republicans Convention held Aug. 8 and 9 in Cincinnati. Dowler, president of the local Young Republican Club, was delegate and Miss Sprenger, secretary of the local Y. R. Club, was the alternate.

There were 49 clubs with delegates and alternates totaling 375 present. Dowler was appointed to the Constitution Committee of the convention. This committee was responsible for the reviewing of the Ohio League's Constitution and making recommendations to the present constitution. These were then presented to the convention and voted into the new constitution.

Saturday morning was spent in convention committee meetings or the morning session, where the Vice-Mayor of Cincinnati, Willis D. Gradison gave welcoming remarks and state officers for 1968-1969 gave their final report.

The luncheon speaker was Francis L. Dale, president and publisher of the Cincinnati Enquirer. His talk was geared to the theme, "Politics Are For All People." Also attending the luncheon was State Auditor Roger C. Cloud and State Treasurer and Mrs. John D. Herbert.

The convention session was the highlight of the day. All the committees gave reports. The election of the 1969-1970 officers followed. Eugene Dowler gave the seconding speech for Miss Jan Wolfe, candidate for co-chairman of the Ohio League.

After the convention and a leisure hour, dinner was held. The main speaker was John A. Andrews, State Republican chairman. His main theme was to work towards 1970 and make it a Republican victory in the State House. Also the new officers were introduced and each said a few words. The evening was brought to a close by a dance with the Everett Neill Orchestra.

Tax Sharing Plan Proposed By President

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon asked Congress today to start sharing income tax revenues with the states at a set amount each year with no strings attached.

The states could use the money as they see fit after passing on a fixed portion to city governments.

Nixon envisioned that most of the money would go to education.

And he saw the whole project as a means of "shifting the balance of political power from Washington back to the country and the people" and "narrowing the distance between the people and the government agencies dealing with their problems."

"Because of budget stringencies," Nixon said, the program would start out modestly with $500 million. But it would get up to $5 billion annually by mid-1975.

Nixon said he was keeping a campaign pledge with these proposals and also was expressing the feelings of the majority of Americans who, he declared, "no longer support the continued expansion of federal services."

The President said the revenue sharing proposal also would "provide encouragement and the necessary resources for local and state officials to exercise leadership in solving their own problems." He predicted it would "restore strength and vigor to local and state governments."

In the past three decades, Nixon said, there has been "enormous federal commitment in new men, new ideas and new dollars from Washington but the problems of the cities deepened rapidly into crisis."

Prices in some machines may go as high as 50 cents a pack. Most cigarette vendors plan to hike prices next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Donald D. Cook, director of the Department of Liquor Control, said the tax increase will require him to put his employees at the 296 state liquor stores on overtime Sunday and Monday to change the prices of the beverages in stock.

He noted that the prices must be changed on about 970 brands of liquor.

The General Assembly estimated annual revenue at $34 million but Cook said sales will drop off as buyers resist the tax hike. He said that $30 million a year would be a more reasonable estimate.

Cook said he expects more liquor bootlegging, since the tax increase will put Ohio's liquor prices above those of Kentucky, West Virginia and Michigan.

Stock List Goes Down

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market pulled back sharply over a wide front in fairly quiet trading early this afternoon, with the Dow Jones industrial average at noon off 7.59 at 805.37.

Brokers said the market apparently was headed for a test of the 790-800 level of the DJI. The Dow industrial penetrated the psychologically important 800 level July 30, then bounced back in later trading to close up 1.62 at 803.58. The action was followed by a rally.

Declines led advances by about 500 issues.

Analysts attributed the decline, in part, to "a variety of negative news items."

They cited, as weighing on the market, uncertainty about the British pound's stability after devaluation of the French franc as well as a sharp increase in July in Britain's trade deficit.

Also pointed to were the fire-up in the Vietnam fighting and reports by Red China that the Russians had penetrated into a province.

The Associated Press 60-stock average at noon was off 2.0 at 286.0, with industrials off 3.9, rails off 1.3, utilities up 1.

Randolph Computer was the most-active issue on the Amex, up 7-8 at 27 3-8.

U.N. Meets To Ponder Middle East

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council meets today to discuss the fighting along the Israeli-Lebanese border.

Lebanon complained Tuesday of the Israeli air strike the day before on the Mt. Hermon region in southeast Lebanon. The Lebanese claimed that 16 Israeli planes hit six villages in the area, killing four civilians and injuring three more.

Israel a few hours later went to the council charging an increase in guerrilla attacks on Israel from Arab guerrillas based in Lebanon. Israel authorities said Monday's air attack hit seven guerrilla camps in reprisal for "terrorist acts" by Arab guerrillas operating from Lebanese territory.

Israel claims that about 500 Arab guerrillas have been operating from southeast Lebanon since 1968. The Lebanese claim the guerrillas get their support from Syria, but the Beirut government has been unwilling to curb them because of sympathy for them among Palestine refugees and others in Lebanon.

Meanwhile, hostilities continued along Israel's borders.

Arab artillery fired on two Israeli settlements near the Lebanese border early today, Israeli army officers said. There were no reports on casualties or damage.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreseeing a legislative log jam, Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen says he has asked the Nixon administration to provide him with its priorities for this session of Congress.

"I have talked to the White House about the necessity of setting some priorities," the Illinois senator said. He added that so far "the progress has been slow indeed" on administration legislative proposals.

The House and Senate began today a three-week recess. Congress is scheduled to reconvene Sept. 7.

Dirksen said, however, he thinks taking it slow hasn't "harmed the country one bit. You can help a country by not cluttering the books with too much legislation."

British Trade Data Shows Bigger Deficit

LONDON (AP) — Britain's foreign trade deficit jumped $28.8 million in July to $88.8 million, the Board of Trade announced today.

Foreign exchange dealers had predicted a deficit of more than $72 million dollars would increase selling pressure on the pound sterling, which was already near its official floor because of reaction to the devaluation of the French franc.

The pound in London dropped soon after the trade figures were announced, but then recovered slightly. It was selling around $2.3825, up from Tuesday's close of $2.3820.

Dealers said business was far from hectic. The initial reaction appeared to be disappointment at the trade figures but some relief that they were not worse.

Government securities dropped after the announcement. So did leading industrials on the London Stock Exchange.

Trade figures are an especially important influence on the British pound because this island nation lives on foreign trade. When it buys more abroad than it sells to foreign customers, as it did last month, the pound weakens.

The Board of Trade figures this time, however, were blurred by an additional factor and it was unclear immediately what effect this would have on the pound.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Roy Jenkins announced June 21 that Britain had been underestimating its exports and that the deficit, therefore, was less than the published figures.

July was the first month that this new calculation was made. The Board of Trade said if this was taken into account the visible trade deficit in July was really only $64.8 million.

Military Clubs To Be Probed By Congressmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reports of illegal activities within the worldwide, multimillion dollar operation of U.S. military officers and noncommissioned officers clubs will be investigated by a Senate subcommittee.

Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., said his investigative group will hold hearings in September. He raised an eyebrow Tuesday when Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird disclosed the Army has been looking into the problem since last October.

The senator said his investigators were in South Vietnam from March to July but got "no indication that the Army is either equipped or inclined to police itself" on this matter.

While emphasizing that no charges have been filed yet, Pentagon officials indicated there is concern over the possibility of huge rake-offs of the profits by military men operating the facilities.

Congress-Pentagon Clash Ends After Heated Skirmish

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate fighting over military policy and spending has entered a three-week lull but not before a hot skirmish over a proposal to put strict limits on U.S. assistance to Laos and Thailand.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, who touched off the battle Tuesday, said opposition by Nixon administration backers and members of the Armed Services Committee might be explained by reports he has heard that U.S. troops are flying helicopters in support of Thai troops battling insurgents in northern Thailand.

"It would stop that," the Kentucky Republican said of his proposed amendment.

Cooper offered his proposal to the portion of the $20 billion military procurement authorization bill that deals with military assistance to South Vietnam, Laos and Thailand. His move came after the Senate voted unanimously to limit such aid to $2.5 billion—about its present level.

Cooper's amendment would restrict use of the aid to Laos and Thailand to materiel, equipment and related costs, ruling out its use to provide U.S. ground forces.

Without such a restriction, he told the Senate, "we could be committing our troops in the same way we became involved in Vietnam."

Cooper withdrew his amendment after more than an hour of debate but said he plans to offer it again after the three-week vacancy which Congress starts today.

The U.S. commitment to Thailand, especially a secret agreement between the two countries, was the subject of interest all day, starting with a morning session of the Foreign Relations Committee.

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, stormed out of the committee after the Pentagon refused to produce copies of the 1964 agreements.

"Rumor has it," Church told the Senate later, "that the plans not only contemplate the use of American troops, but an arrangement that would actually place them under Thai command."

Today In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreseeing a legislative log jam, Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen says he has asked the Nixon administration to provide him with its priorities for this session of Congress.

"I have talked to the White House about the necessity of setting some priorities," the Illinois senator said. He added that so far "the progress has been slow indeed" on administration legislative proposals.

The House and Senate began today a three-week recess. Congress is scheduled to reconvene Sept. 7.

Dirksen said, however, he thinks taking it slow hasn't "harmed the country one bit. You can help a country by not cluttering the books with too much legislation."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. James O. Eastland, chairman of the Senate internal security subcommittee, says a demonstration involving "several thousand people" will be executed near President Nixon's summer White House at San Clemente, Calif., Aug. 15.

The Mississippi Democrat said he was given the information by a witness who appeared before a closed session of his committee Tuesday. He refused to identify the witness.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of the House Post Office Committee have asked Postmaster General Winton M. Blount to try to resolve differences with postal workers' unions over his plan to reorganize the Post Office into a Postal Corporation.

Blount, in turn, told the committee Tuesday he is "flexible" if being flexible is necessary to gain passage of the legislation.

"If any of these areas depended on whether we get this legislation or not, my answer might be different," Blount told committee members.

Postal unions, which do not have the right to strike, contend they would be powerless in dealing with the proposed corporation's board of directors on matters of wages and working conditions. Salaries and working conditions now are set by Congress.

Capital Quote
"The refusal of the Secretary of Defense to submit the plans to the committee is typical of the arrogant way the Pentagon has come to deal with Congress"—Sen. Frank Church D-Idaho, on walking out of a Senate Foreign Relations Committee session on a U.S.-Thai military agreement.

Train Wreck Hurts Dozen

NEW YORK (AP) — An empty Long Island Rail Road train rammed into the rear of a crowded commuter train in an East River tunnel today, injuring about a dozen persons.

An LIRR spokesman said none was injured seriously.

The two eastbound trains, one a "deadhead," left Penn Station shortly after 8:30 a.m. The crash occurred about a half-hour later 1,200 feet west of the Long Island City exit from the tunnel.

After the crash, a diesel locomotive pulled the passenger train into the Jamaica, Queens, yards and the injured were rushed to a hospital.

The accident temporarily halted all service on the world's largest commuter line. The cause was not immediately determined.

2 Ohioans Die In Road Crashes

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Two Ohioans were among eight persons killed in traffic accidents on Kentucky highways Tuesday.

James Ray Burnett, 25, Dayton, Ohio, died in a collision with another vehicle six miles west of Nigger Creek Road in Rockcastle County.

Ernest Henry, 59, of Hamilton, Ohio, was killed when he lost control of his car after leaving Interstate 75 at Williamsport in Grant County. Police said Henry died from injuries suffered when he was thrown from the vehicle after it hit an embankment.

City Hall receptions were on the schedule in both cities, plus a United Nations welcome in New York and a rally of 10,000 youths in Chicago's Grant Park.

Then it's on to Los Angeles and a reception and state dinner at the Century Plaza Hotel. President Nixon is the host and in attendance will be most of the 50 state governors, plus hundreds of diplomats, space officials and fellow astronauts.

Millions of Americans who can't be there personally will watch the welcome on television, just as they watched enthralled as Armstrong and Aldrin walked the surface of the moon. All three major networks will cover the pageantry in the three cities.

Baked In A Pie

In the quieter, less trodden corners of some famous delicatessens one finds the exotic foods, dainties for epicures whose palates are more far-ranging than those of ordinary folk.

Tinned rattlesnake, roasted honey bees and frogs legs must have a limited popularity, and there cannot be many customers for sparrows, plucked and tinned, although they are alleged to appeal to an exclusive few who find the flavor resembles that of quail. "Diamond Jim" Brady, the brass-knuckled American millionaire, is said to have enjoyed crow exotically prepared at his lavish banquets. Only after dinner was over did he tell his guests what they had eaten.

Perhaps they thought it was quail, for sometimes Diamond Jim, who had the wealth to indulge his whims, would import quail, have them stuffed in pigeons, the pigeons stuffed in chickens, and the chickens in turkeys. Then the whole was cooked until all the outer birds fell away leaving only the quail, with all the richness, for his gourmet guests.

Beside such opulent fare, crow pie seems modest and plebeian indeed.

The Business World

NEW YORK (AP) — There is some consolation in the President's revenue-sharing proposal for frustrated local taxpayers who increasingly have felt that funds sent to Washington was money poured down the drain.

Now, they are told, they might expect a return flow from the national government that can be used on the local problems that always seem more pressing and real than national and international issues.

It is difficult to foresee what fate awaits this proposal, which would turn $1 billion a year back to the states and cities with far fewer of the strings and restrictions that usually accompany federal money.

There is no difficulty at all, however, in predicting that even if this proposal doesn't make the grade, the concept of revenue sharing in some form is going to get a thorough airing. It has been smothered too long, and the pressures behind it are powerful.

Among the more serious reasons for studying revenue sharing is the cynicism that has developed among many citizens who work to pay taxes but cannot identify what they considered to be socially constructive projects resulting from the effort.

These are the people referred to by Fred Allen, the late comedian, when he quipped: "An income tax form is like a laundry list. Either you lose your shirt." As truthful as humorous.

To return to these people some of the money they have sent to Washington might have a psychological value, for one thing, and it might also have a more visible effect in relieving pressures on local taxes.

The news in recent months has pointed up how serious are the financial problems of local and state governments. Police and firemen have threatened to strike for higher wages. Churches have been criticized for not contributing revenue.

In many areas last fall a surprising number of bond issues were rejected by voters. And many of these projects were necessities: schools, sewers, health facilities. Local officials bitterly complained that the federal government had pre-empted the revenue-raising business.

The number and variety of taxes that have developed on the local and state level are staggering, and still they are considered insufficient. Some workers now file three income tax returns. And retail sales of taxes have local as well as state taxes attached.

Personal income taxes now are collected in at least 37 states, and 7 of these raised the rates last year. Sales taxes exist now in at least 44 states and are becoming more common on the municipal level.

Last year eight states increased taxes on cigarettes, three on alcohol and five on gasoline. On the local level, property taxes went up nearly everywhere and now average $145 per person.

Many of these taxpayers feel they are unjustly taxed—that in welfare, at least, they are assuming a national responsibility that they cannot afford and which forces them to lower the quality of other services.

In the Nixon proposal many of these citizens will feel their complaints have been recognized but a question remains, however, as to whether the Nixon plan will be the one chosen.

Opposition is expected from Congress, in part, at least, because of the belief that states should not have the freedom to use as they please federal funds which they had no responsibility in raising.

Some argument also should be put forth against raising the money in the first place. The alternative of a reduced federal tax rate would relieve the pressure on local governments just as effectively—and perhaps more so.

A YOUNG MOTHER in Easthampton, N.Y., served her small daughter two fried chicken wings for lunch. "Can't I have something else?" pleaded the daughter. "These are nothing but hinges!"

Leo Durocher, fiery manager of the Cub baseball team now battling for the National League pennant, was once introduced at a banquet by his then-boss, Branch Rickey, as "a man with an infinite capacity for making a bad situation worse." Rickey was only kidding—also tacitly acknowledging that Durocher was one of the few men in baseball who dared stand up to him and give as good as he took.

Durocher's famous tangles with umpires sometimes obscure the fact that he's one of the greatest managers in baseball annals. Furthermore, it was the supposedly self-centered Durocher who was instrumental in seeing that Jackie Robinson, the first black allowed to play in the big leagues, got a fair shake from his antagonistic teammates.

Asked to name his most embarrassing moment in baseball, Leo admits it came when he assumed the management of the Chicago Cubs in 1966, and proclaimed, "This is not an eighth-place club." He proved his point. The Cubs that year finished TENTH. This year, however, is something else again.

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

A highly advertised nightclub act caught my attention and intrigued me sufficiently to see it. The spectacular reviews of the wizardry of this hypnotist were borne out by what I witnessed. A thoroughly charming, glib entertainer wore a spell with modulated voice, penetrating lights, and intensive persuasion.

The effect was dramatic and astounding. Even though I was motivated to see this theatrical performance because of my personal interest in hypnosis, I, too, was barely able to avoid the trance.

Volunteers from the audience were made to perform levitation of the hands, painless pricks to the fingers, and were reduced to childlike behavior patterns. The audience generally was enthralled by the mixture of ridiculousness and personal indignity wrung from the volunteers.

I do not know how many in the audience later saw a twenty-two-year-old girl sitting in the lounge, crying hysterically, getting little or no comfort from her friend who had induced her to volunteer as a subject.

When I introduced myself as a physician, the young lady seemed to develop a sense of security and later told me that she had become terrified under hypnosis. She also confessed that she had, for a short time, been hospitalized because of a "slight" nervous breakdown.

The total picture of the danger of hypnosis as a parlor game or as a form of entertainment must be revised. Hypnosis is a highly technical skill that has been officially recognized by the American Medical Association for more than fifteen years. Unfortunately, words and gimmicks can spin the web of hypnosis even by those who have no psychological insight or training in this delicate art and science.

Herein lurks the danger. The ability to hypnotize has no relationship to the amount of damage it may do to a highly neurotic or psychotic person caught in the trap of the stage hypnotist's chatter. Emotional dangers are interwoven in these amusement games played with hypnosis.

The Morton Prince Clinic for Hypnotherapy in New York City is staffed by a vast group of physicians, dentists, and psychologists who are expertly trained in the proper use of hypnosis. Here, hypnosis is used as another tool in psychotherapy and is called into action whenever it is felt that it can rapidly get to the heart of an emotional problem.

Associated with the Morton Prince Clinic is the Institute for Research in Hypnosis which studies such problems as the relief of pain, the cessation of smoking, the control of overeating, the balance of emotional responses, the reduction of fear and anxiety, the alteration of the habits of the chronic gambler, and limitless others.

It is unsafe to allow two such desperate uses of hypnosis. On the one hand, a group of dedicated, highly trained specialists devote their energies to the control and cure of emotional problems in an effort to rehabilitate the individual and his family. On the other hand, hypnosis is a dangerous game played by those who are bright enough to have learned the method and are willing to exploit their captive audience without any responsibility for playing with hypnotic dynamite.

Reaches Of Foreign Policy

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN
Most commentators think President Richard Nixon is a man of contradictions. But the more truthful observation is that he is a man of subtleties.

The theory of contradictions gained impetus when Mr. Nixon, speaking in Bangkok, told the Thai people that "the United States will stand proudly with Thailand against those who might threaten from abroad or within." Once Nixon had sounded off in this vein, a score of commentators jumped to the conclusion that our traveling President had given way to a momentary enthusiasm that contradicted what he had said a few days before in Guam. The "Guam Doctrine," as enunciated by Nixon, had indicated that we would stand by Asian countries in resistance to the spread of Communism, but that our aid would be largely limited to economic and logistical help and technical advice, plus the protection of our nuclear umbrella in case Red China were to threaten nuclear aggression.

In sober reality, Nixon's promise to Thailand does not necessarily go beyond the stipulations of the "Guam Doctrine." Nixon was speaking in a country whose Foreign Minister, the redoubtable Thanat Khoman, has taken the lead in trying to create a southeast Asia regional organization that would be capable of providing the manpower for its own defense. Thanat Khoman has been quite explicit in voicing a prediction that the U.S. will someday be withdrawing its ground troops from the southeast Asian mainland. He has tried to persuade the Filipinos, the Indonesians, and the Malaysians to set up an armed force capable of policing the southeast Asian area once the U.S. has pulled its ground troops out of South Vietnam's jungles and provided for an "international control" to enforce whatever peace formula comes out of the Paris talks.

Nixon does not propose any U.S. retreat from Asia into a new isolationism. What the "Guam Doctrine" stresses is that the U.S. must respect the local need for prudence and self-reliance in combating Communist subversion. The promise to Indonesia was that the U.S. would continue to pay its part of the $500,000,000 which western nations have been contributing on an annual basis to enable the Indonesians to overcome inflation. This does not involve sending a single U.S. soldier to Indonesia. In the case of the Philippines, Nixon satisfied President Ferdinand Marcos that the U.S. would help him resist aggression without committing U.S. military power to operations on the Asian mainland against a threatening Red China.

What made Nixon's words in Bangkok worrisome is the fact that the U.S. has maintained almost fifty thousand soldiers in Thailand to guard the airbases from which our planes have taken off to strike at North Vietnamese concentrations in Laos and South Vietnam. In return for our help in training the Thai army in counter-insurgency techniques designed to combat Communist guerrilla penetration of the Thailand northeast, the Thai government has sent 12,000 troops to South Vietnam. It now wants to recall these troops, which is tacit admission that it does not expect American soldiers to remain on Thai soil once the war in Vietnam is over.

The whole picture is consonant with Nixon's campaign promises that U.S. foreign policy will ultimately be geared to helping those who help themselves, not to taking over and "Americanizing" future wars on foreign soil. This involves subtleties. It puts our "internationalism" on a par with that of Soviet Russia, which has supported wars of "liberation" in colonial areas without committing a single Red Army soldier to the actual battlefield. The U.S. is admittedly at a disadvantage here for the simple reason that it lacks a "Jeffersonian internationalism" capable of competing with local Communist parties which are subsidized by Moscow. But we have had our own ways of helping local governments maintain their integrity; the insurrectionary Che Guevara was tracked down and killed in Bolivia by local forces that had had the benefit of U.S. counter-insurgency training.

The "Guam Doctrine" offers partnerships with like-minded governments, the unspoken stipulation being that the U.S. as a nation of technological expertise, will add the weight of its industry to local Asian manpower in enabling the East Asians to remain free. There are no "contradictions" here, just an old-fashioned division of labor.

EDITOR'S NOTE — We welcome letters to the editor. In order to be considered for publication, they must bear the correct name and address of the writer. Dear Sir:

Once again the curtain is falling on another year of Little League Baseball. For eight years we have watched the games and have derived considerable pleasure in doing so.

Because many of the boys have reached an age when they will no longer be eligible to play Little League ball, a bit of sadness is felt as the curtain falls.

Such a feeling is only natural when we look back to those first years of watching the kids give to the game the best they had in them. Back when baseball gloves were almost as big as those who wore them and when the distance from third to first must have looked like a mile.

Over the years we watched those kids, some not much bigger than a bar of soap at the start, develop into young men and outstanding ballplayers.

By making it possible for us to watch baseball, we extend our thanks to all those working within the Little League organization.

But to those players who are writing firms to their Little League careers we wish continued success to all their future endeavors.

NEW YORK (AP) — Life would be rosier if the postman brought more letters like these: "Remember Joe Jimcrack, the guy who beat you out by three votes when our high school graduating class was selecting the one most likely to succeed."

"Well, it seems like he has been in nothing but trouble ever since he started passing those bad checks. Recently he had most of his teeth knocked out in a brawl in a low dive on Elm Street. Some of his old classmates are taking up a collection to buy him a set of false teeth so he'll at least look respectable at the 25th reunion of our class next spring."

"Shall I put you down for a buck?"

I'm considering early retirement, and on my return I'll probably turn over the keys to my desk to you permanently.

"There is one unpleasant chore I'd like you to do. I want you to hand Frank Climber, our third vice president, his walking papers. He spends so much time scheming to get the jobs of better men that his own work has slipped badly."

"The task of letting him go should be less unpleasant to you than it would be for me, however, since as we both know he has been trying to stick a shiv in your own back for at least 10 years. You can give him a farewell bonus if you feel like it—but keep it small."

"So just tell your wife to wear something informal. An ordinary business suit will do for you. It should be doubly appropriate, as a matter of fact, because I'd like you to stay for a chat after the other guests leave and pick your brains for suggestions on my administration's business policies."

"Hope you won't mind also if we show you a few home movies taken during our recent world trip. Be sure to bring along a good appetite—Lyndon has sent up several slices of fine Texas beef for the party."

"No, it won't be necessary for you to wear tie and tails or a masquerade costume to the White House Halloween ball. As you know, Mrs. Nixon and I are

Miss Sandra Pauline Long Weds Kenneth E. Henn Jr.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH E. HENN JR.

Miss Sandra Pauline Long and Mr. Kenneth E. Henn Jr., repeated marriage vows 7:30 p.m. June 7, in Trinity Lutheran Church with Pastor Carl Zehner officiating the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride and groom are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Russell, Route 2, Williamsport, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Henn Sr., 429 Ruth Ave.

Altar vases and baskets in brass stands and triple branch candelabra adorned the altar. The pews were marked with yellow and green satin bows.

Pre-nuptial music was presented by Miss Patricia Schleich organist and Mr. Rodger Allen vocalist.

Escorted to the altar by her step-father, who gave her in marriage, the bride selected for her wedding an A-line floor length gown of peau de soie satin. Calais lace encircled the gown having elbow length sleeves and scooped neckline with lace overlay. The full length mantilla of white illusion was edged with the Calais lace. She carried a cross shaped bouquet of yellow roses, lily of the valley and fern.

Miss Diane Cook, maid of honor, was attired in a green crepe floor length A-line gown with white lace trimming the bodice. Her headpiece was a brief matching veil and she carried a single long stemmed yellow rose.

Flower girl was Miss Carla Anne Long, the bride's niece, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Neal Long of Plainview, Texas, formerly of Circleville. She wore a yellow floor length gown enhanced with white lace. Ring bearer was a cousin of the groom, Dallas Hettinger, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hettinger of Circleville.

Mr. Don Berger performed the duties of best man. Seating the guests were Mr. David Temple and Mr. Randy McCoy.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Russell selected an A-line dress and jacket ensemble of blue satin with a lace overlay and blue accessories. Mrs. Henn was attired for the occasion in an A-line blue lace over linen dress with blue accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of yellow carnations.

The Parish House was the setting for the reception immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a four tiered cake topped with the traditional bride and groom figurines and surrounded with yellow roses, lily of the valley and fern. Yellow tapers in candelabra flanked the cake. Hostesses were Mary Kay Temple, Betty Connell and Peggy Allan.

The new Mrs. Henn is a 1968 graduate of Westfall High School and will be a sophomore at Ohio University in Chillicothe. Mr. Henn, a 1968 graduate of Circleville High School, is also a student at Ohio University in Chillicothe and is employed by Orient State Institute.

The couple presently resides at 907 S. Washington St., Circleville.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from Dayton, Chillicothe, Washington C. H. and Fort Wayne, Ind.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH E. HENN JR.

Miss Sandra Pauline Long and Mr. Kenneth E. Henn Jr., repeated marriage vows 7:30 p.m. June 7, in Trinity Lutheran Church with Pastor Carl Zehner officiating the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride and groom are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Russell, Route 2, Williamsport, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Henn Sr., 429 Ruth Ave.

Altar vases and baskets in brass stands and triple branch candelabra adorned the altar. The pews were marked with yellow and green satin bows.

Pre-nuptial music was presented by Miss Patricia Schleich organist and Mr. Rodger Allen vocalist.

Escorted to the altar by her step-father, who gave her in marriage, the bride selected for her wedding an A-line floor length gown of peau de soie satin. Calais lace encircled the gown having elbow length sleeves and scooped neckline with lace overlay. The full length mantilla of white illusion was edged with the Calais lace. She carried a cross shaped bouquet of yellow roses, lily of the valley and fern.

Miss Diane Cook, maid of honor, was attired in a green crepe floor length A-line gown with white lace trimming the bodice. Her headpiece was a brief matching veil and she carried a single long stemmed yellow rose.

Flower girl was Miss Carla Anne Long, the bride's niece, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Neal Long of Plainview, Texas, formerly of Circleville. She wore a yellow floor length gown enhanced with white lace. Ring bearer was a cousin of the groom, Dallas Hettinger, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hettinger of Circleville.

Mr. Don Berger performed the duties of best man. Seating the guests were Mr. David Temple and Mr. Randy McCoy.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Russell selected an A-line dress and jacket ensemble of blue satin with a lace overlay and blue accessories. Mrs. Henn was attired for the occasion in an A-line blue lace over linen dress with blue accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of yellow carnations.

The Parish House was the setting for the reception immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a four tiered cake topped with the traditional bride and groom figurines and surrounded with yellow roses, lily of the valley and fern. Yellow tapers in candelabra flanked the cake. Hostesses were Mary Kay Temple, Betty Cornell and Peggy Allan.

The new Mrs. Henn is a 1968 graduate of Westfall High School and will be a sophomore at Ohio University in Chillicothe. Mr. Henn, a 1968 graduate of Circleville High School, is also a student at Ohio University in Chillicothe and is employed by Orient State Institute.

The couple presently resides at 907 S. Washington St., Circleville.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from Dayton, Chillicothe, Washington C. H. and Fort Wayne, Ind.

Rubbing your hands with a cut potato removes vegetable stains.

It takes about 20 minutes in a moderate oven for bananas (skins removed) to bake until they have a translucent look. But you may find that you enjoy the fruit when it is baked less time and it still has an opaque look. Sprinkle the bananas with lemon juice and sugar before baking. Serve as a curry accompaniment, with meat or fish, or as a dessert.

Afghanistan Struggles Hard To Gain Modern Outlook

The Circleville Herald, Wed. Aug. 13, 1969
Circleville, Ohio

By JAMES M. MARKHAM
Associated Press Writer
KABUL, Afghanistan (AP) — This is the place to get away from it all, but only well-heeled hippies need apply.

A familiar sight around Kabul used to be the foreign long-hairs, begging from startled Afghans, conning students into buying them lunches at the Khyber Restaurant, sometimes embarrassing the Europeans and Americans who live here.

Then the government cracked down, specifying that you have to have at least $200 to enter the country. The number of hippies has fallen off drastically.

But other aspects of the modern scene have penetrated Afghanistan, one of the last untamed frontiers in the world.

There is a student problem. In the old days, the king, in order to secure the obedience of various Khans—local tribal leaders—would insist that each Khan send a son to be educated in Kabul.

It was widely believed—and often true—that the sons were sent to Kabul to keep their dads on good behavior.

When the time came to really educate young Afghans nobody would think of paying to send a son off to Kabul University, so education is free in Afghanistan. In fact, the government pays students' fares between Kabul, where the only university is, and the provinces—even for vacations.

Still, the students riot, occupy school buildings, clash with police, protest against the system—which they claim doesn't provide them jobs or move Afghanistan fast enough toward modernity.

Girls have joined their "brothers" in the movement and last spring were clobbered along with them when mounted police swept through Kabul University and chased students into the nearby hills.

Many of the students consider themselves Communists and glibly mouth the talk that the various centers of Marxist wisdom produce. Moscow has a slight edge over Peking.

Communists or not, these students are unwaveringly patriotic. They called off their demonstrations for a week when U.S. Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin came to town in May. The students didn't want to embarrass the government while the American and Russian officials were here.

Afghanistan has a remarkable king. He was a near-prisoner of relatives from 1933 when at 19 he took over from his murdered father.

But Mohammed Zahi Shah shook off their influence in 1963 and gave his country its first democratic constitution. He also banned all members of the vast and omnipresent royal family from politics.

Every day he sees many people, ministers, parliamentarians, and others, in the royal palace, located at the center of town. Lately he has been seeing student leaders, listening to their complaints.

"He is not only the king," one well-informed diplomat observed. "He is the most experienced politician in the country."

The king's democracy—especially the parliament—is an unruly forum that has brought out the latent divisions of Afghan society as much as it has developed the ideal of government by consent.

With the king's blessing, Communists, Socialists, landowners, Moslem priests do parliamentary battle in the Wolesi Jirgah, the lower house, and make life pretty miserable for the prime minister and his Cabinet.

This is a beautiful but often rugged and barren land, slightly smaller than Texas.

As one crosses it, along the modern Kabul-Kandahar-Herat highway, camel caravans and groups of gypsies called Foochies are scattered along the sandy wastes.

The most famous piece of territory associated with Afghanistan—the Khyber Pass—is mostly inside Pakistan. For 100 Afghans or $1.30 you can journey for six hours in a not unpleasant bus from Kabul to Peshawar, in Pakistan, and see the pass yourself.

Except for the scent of history, the pass is a geological dud: just a pile of rocks with a few forts here and there.

Kabul, and its nearby Kabul Gorge—or the magnificent Buddhist caves at Bamian, in central Afghanistan—are much more striking than the Khyber. Kabul sits at 6,000 feet, surrounded by magnificent snow-capped mountains. The summers are warm and in the winter it dips below zero. To keep warm Afghans burn wood and sawdust and huddle around the family fire.

Most traditional Afghans live in joint, or extended, families: all the married sons of one father living together with their families and parents. The patriarch is the king of the house, giving his sons allowances out of their savings. His wife is the prime minister, keeping her daughters-in-law in a perpetual state of subjection.

The ordinary Afghan's diet is built around a bread-cake, which he eats twice a day mixed with roasted meat or vegetable seeds. Spiced rice—pilau—and kebabs are favorite dishes.

There are about 16 million Afghans. They grow grain and cotton, and make unusual rugs. One of the main industries is breeding the sheep that produce karakul skins.

Seventy per cent of the Americans living here—diplomats,

U.S. aid employees, a few businessmen, their families—get amebic dysentery, a debilitating oriental malady that thrives in unsanitary places.

Yet certainly more than 70 per cent of all Americans living here love the country. The skiing is good. The trappings of civilization are there: the modern, almost disciplined Kabul streets; some of the best highways in Asia, courtesy of the Russians and the Americans. Even an Intercontinental Hotel is coming up on the edge of town, away from the bazaar's dust.

Aside from these things you drop into another century. You can see it best during Jeshen, the national holiday that falls at the end of August.

Then the streets of Kabul are inundated with proud Afghans who have come down from north of the Hindu Kush—the 20,000-foot range that splits Afghanistan in two—to see the big show. Many come on horseback.

The token quantities of mini-skirts and drainpipe trousers, islands of modernity, are flooded by a sea of tall hawk-nosed

Afghans in baggy clothes and casually worn turbans. In a crush these strapping fellows will grab your wife if she is foolish enough to leave her arms or legs uncovered.

The Jeshen show is primarily a military parade—put on in part to impress on many of these tribes the fact that the king and his men have better rifles than they do.

Derby

Mrs. Madge Hoffman just returned from a delightful two week vacation at Winona Lake near Warsaw, Indiana where she attended "The Winona School of Professional Photography". She received certificates for each and certificates of merit on Advanced Oil Coloring, Advanced Brush Oils and on coloring of direct color prints. People from all over the U.S. including Hawaii were attending this school.

Of special interest to some Derby folks, Miss Shirley Southward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Southward of Circleville, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy McPherson, announces her engagement and approaching marriage to Mr. John B. Lake of Williamsport. The open church wedding will take place 11:30 a.m. Monday, September 1, in St. Joseph's Church on Mound St. in Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walters proudly announce the arrival of a new baby girl on August 5 in Madison County Hospital. Her name is Jodi Lynn.

James Kibby, Westfall High School band director announces that band practice for the marching band will start at 7 p.m. on Monday, August 18 at the high school building.

Linda Vance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Vance of near Derby, and a Westfall graduate accompanied members of the Ohio Farm Bureau tour now visiting South American countries, serving as journalist and photographer for the group. She is a junior in the OSU College of Agriculture.

They visited Panama City and Canal, Quite, Ecuador, Lima, Peru, São Paulo, Peracibaba, Landrina, Curitiba, and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, also Caracas, Venezuela, returning to Columbus on August 10.

Linda's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Vance, left for Europe on August 3, part of a group of forty, members of a Good-Will People to People Tour of Europe and USSR and representing livestock growers and producers. The group will return in three weeks.

Congratulations to Beverly Lance in the horsemanship contest, Mike Bayes, champion hog, Don McKay, grand champ female Jersey, Mark Hosler, champion bull, and the Russell Shannon family, grand champion female Guernsey for prizes won at the Pickaway County Fair.

Those having birthdays this week are: Carl Tobin, Aug. 10; Janet Kay Neff, Aug. 11; Bertie Musselman, Aug. 12; Johnny Johnson, Aug. 15; Ruthann Pickering, Aug. 15; Ned Yoakum, Aug. 15; Jane Bayes, Aug. 15.

Anniversaries include Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tobin, Aug. 8 and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Riddle, Aug. 12.

Indians To Stage Albuquerque March

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — About 200 Indians will stage a "protest march" through downtown Albuquerque Sept. 10—if the City Commission approves.

It would not be a genuine protest but a march for a scene in a Warner Brothers-Seven Arts film "Nobody Loves Flapping Eagle." The filmmakers say they will ask for a permit to close city streets during the demonstration.

The snail, an unusually hardy animal, survives temperatures from 48 to 110 degrees Fahrenheit, and can tolerate highly polluted water.

Indians To Stage Albuquerque March

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — About 200 Indians will stage a "protest march" through downtown Albuquerque Sept. 10 if the City Commission approves.

It would not be a genuine protest but a march for a scene in a Warner Brothers-Seven Arts film "Nobody Loves Flapping Eagle." The filmmakers say they will ask for a permit to close city streets during the demonstration.

The snail, an unusually hardy animal, survives temperatures from 48 to 110 degrees Fahrenheit, and can tolerate highly polluted water.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

He Tells Wife That He'll Date

DEAR ABBY: Last winter when my husband attended a convention out of town he got involved with a lady delegate in her hotel room. When Alfred came home he told me about it, which I appreciated, but instead of saying he was sorry and would never do it again, he said he'd do it again if he got the chance.

Fortunately Alfred doesn't get many opportunities to travel with a local woman because this is a small town and he's afraid of gossip, and I believe him, but I know I'll worry the next time he leaves town.

I asked him what he would do if I got involved with another man and he said he'd break my neck. Is this fair? He thinks he is being fair with me because he's telling me in advance. What should I do?

ALFRED'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Tell him you are being "fair" with him, because YOU are telling HIM in advance that if he repeats his convention capers you will break HIS neck.

DEAR ABBY: Whoever said that hypnosis for the purpose of getting heavy smokers to quit doesn't work is all wrong!

My brother was a three-pack-a-day man, and after a series of sessions with a hypnotherapist he gave up cigarettes and hasn't touched one in over a year. In fact, he's the one who complains the loudest when his friends smoke during a poker game.

MY BROTHER'S KEEPER

DEAR KEEPER: Thank you for your letter, which was only one among hundreds in defense of hypnotherapy in this connection. However, I have been advised by several top-notch psychiatrists and most compulsive smokers (as well as compulsive eaters and drinkers) who have relied on hypnosis for a permanent cure are usually disappointed. Not ALL... but MOST!

DEAR ABBY: Today when I drove into a local shopping plaza, I parked next to a car with two small children in it. They looked to be about two and four years old.

When I came back about an hour and half later, they were still there, crying their hearts out.

Just then the mother came along, and I said, "YOUR CHILDREN HAVE BEEN CRYING FOR SOME TIME!" With no concern, she said, "Yea, I know."

How can people be so cruel to small children? Don't they know the dangers?

"MAD" IN BANGOR, ME.

DEAR "MAD": They know, but they think all the horrible things that happen to children unattended in parked cars can never happen to THEIR children. Only to somebody else's.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HONEST ABE FROM TEXAS" (and no less than a hundred other sharp-eyed, right-thinking readers): Mea culpa! The insurance agent's wife should not be asked to lie for him and say that he is "out" when he is actually in. She should instead say that he is NOT AVAILABLE, take the caller's number, and have her husband return the call.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Homing Pigeons Come Home

HARRISMITH, South Africa (AP) — Farmer Julie Lombard sold five homing pigeons to one of his laborers and warned him to lock them up for a while. To make doubly sure the birds would not fly back to their old loft, their wing feathers were pulled out.

A month later, Lombard was sitting on his veranda at sundown. In the twilight, he made out five little figures plodding up the farm road. The dumb-struck farmer recognized his five birds, led by an old male. In single file, they trudged past the house to the pigeon loft.

As Lombard lifted them to their perches, he noticed their feet were raw from walking the one-mile distance. He decided to keep the birds and give the laborer five baby pigeons instead.

Vocational Schools Prove Boom To Ohio's Students

By LARRY HEINZERLING
Associated Press Writer

As a sophomore, Cindy Allen thought she wanted to be a secretary after she was graduated from Fremont's Ross High School.

But Ross, like most high schools in Ohio, did not have the advanced training programs to teach her how to be one.

So this September, as a 17-year-old senior, Cindy will begin her second year as a student at a special kind of school — the Vanguard Vocational School at Fremont.

There she is being taught intensive courses in typing, business mathematics and English, accounting and the use of adding machines and calculators.

Next June she graduates into Ohio's labor market which will have a place for her as a secretary.

Cindy Allen is one of the lucky ones.

The Ohio Bureau of Employment Services reports that on Dec. 1, 1968, there were 43,690 untrained men and women between the ages of 16 and 21 looking for jobs.

The Vanguard School is part of a growing program in Ohio to combat such employment statistics through job training in a number of Joint Vocational School Districts.

"This school has taught me a lot I couldn't get at Ross," Cindy said. "Everybody here feels the same way — they're going here to get job experience . . . and I think everybody who has an opportunity to go to vocational school should get in."

The concept is simple. Large cities with a wide tax base can afford to provide vocational education programs. But what about the rural, poorer less populated areas in Ohio?

The 1963 vocational school district law provides that school districts unable to finance adequate vocational programs of their own should team with neighboring districts and form a Joint Vocational School District.

The governor's task force on vocational and technical education has recommended that 48 of these joint ventures be created outside the eight major population centers of the state—Akron, Canton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Toledo and Youngstown.

The object, as Gov. James A. Rhodes put it in his recently published book "Alternative to a Decadent Society," is for students to reject "educational snobbery" and become involved in education—"to help every young person develop his capacity for productive participation in our society."

Rhodes, the state's most vocal advocate of increased vocational training, believes the classical emphasis in education—devised to prepare students for professions—"is not relevant to an age of science, technology and democracy."

To date 11 Joint Vocational School Districts are in operation across the state serving students in 20 counties and sections of four others.

These are located at Groveport, Franklin County; Milan, Erie County; Archbold, Fulton County; Xenia, Greene County; Painesville, Lake County; Perrysburg, Wood County; Piketon, Pike County; Shelby, Richland County; Springfield, Clark County; Nelsonville, Athens County; and Fremont in Sandusky County.

This September four more joint districts will open in Ashtabula, Mount Vernon, Zanesville and Smithville, serving students in Ashtabula, Knox, Muskingum and Wayne counties.

The 15 joint districts together will enroll 12,000 high school students for daytime classes, while 18,000 adults will use the classroom facilities at night.

State Vocational Education Director Byrl Shoemaker says 90 per cent of those in the new districts will enter the labor force upon graduation. Eight to 10 per cent will seek higher education. Vocational education, Shoemaker said, "is not a blind alley."

Three other joint districts are expected to open in 1970 at St. Clairsville in Belmont County, Dayton in Montgomery County and at Portsmouth in Scioto County.

In addition, 17 more joint districts have been formed but have not raised the funds for buildings or operating expenses. A joint district in Youngstown which would serve Mahoning County has funds for buildings but still needs taxpayer approval for operating revenue.

Thus, in varying degrees of preparedness, Ohio now boasts 36 joint vocational school districts which will serve member school districts in 49 of the state's 88 counties, representing the union of 319 of Ohio's 647 school districts.

Shoemaker says he hopes to have the 647 school districts incorporated into 48 joint districts by 1974.

All students who attend high schools that are members of the districts are eligible to join the vocational education program and are then transferred to the vocational school.

There they can enroll in training programs including agriculture, business education, distributive education, home economics and trade and industrial education and, in some cases, an occupational work experience program.

Students who are 16 years old or in the eleventh grade, are eligible to enroll in courses ranging from horticulture and cosmetology to electronics and computer data systems.

The training programs are geared to meet student needs as well as those of Ohio industry.

At the Penta-County Vocational School at Perrysburg, which encompasses five counties and is the largest joint district yet formed, the subjects offered have been chosen on the basis of student desire to learn a given subject and industrial needs for trained personnel in various fields.

"It's not really like school," says John Israel, a 19-year-old senior this fall at Green JVSD at Xenia. "It's like working."

Israel, who wants to work in a body repair shop, said he transferred from Beaver Creek High School in Dayton last year.

Says Israel: "I think there should be enough (Joint Vocational School Districts) to take care of all kids who want to go to them." He estimates 300-400 other students at Beaver Creek would like to attend Green Vocational School "but there is no room available."

If one survey is a guide, most students enrolled in the joint school districts are pleased with the outcome.

The department of Education's Division of Guidance and Testing found only three per cent of the students attending the Springfield-Clark County JVSD would rather be back at their home schools.

A study of students at home schools indicated 39 per cent thought they should be enrolled in the vocational school.

Arrest Man In Columbus Murder Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A wedding ring found at the scene of the murder of Cheryl Ann Reynolds, 21, led to the arrest Tuesday night of a 29-year-old Kentucky man, police reported.

David Arthur Antle, arrested at his apartment in Erlange, Ky., was brought here by two Columbus detectives to face a first-degree murder charge. He had waived extradition.

Miss Reynolds, who had a police record of prostitution arrests, was stabbed to death early Saturday morning in her near North Side apartment.

Police said they traced Antle through a set of initials on a wedding ring found in a pool of blood at the murder scene. They said Antle's name also was written on a piece of paper in Miss Reynolds' apartment.

Blood inside and outside the apartment building indicated, police said, that the killer had wounded himself while struggling with the girl.

Antle's right hand was bandaged heavily when he was brought to police headquarters Tuesday night.

Sewer System Dispute Flares In City Of Avon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Testimony concerning the lack of a sewer system in the city of Avon brought out dissension among Avon officials.

Two city councilmen criticized Mayor Nicholas T. Mitock, saying he failed to support a recent bond issue proposed to finance sewer construction.

Mitock blamed a lack of progress on Avon City council.

The discussion came Tuesday during a hearing in which the Ohio Pollution Control Board asked the city to show why it should not be punished for failing to meet state standards on sanitation and waste treatment facilities.

Avon voters last June defeated a proposed $4 million bond issue which would have financed sewer construction.

PGA Faces Disruption

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Negro leaders were expected to announce today plans to disrupt the PGA golf tournament, which opens here Thursday.

The leaders, representing a coalition of 32 civil rights groups, presented their demands for better housing to Chamber of Commerce officials Tuesday, but nothing was resolved.

Chamber officials reportedly rejected demands for free tickets to the golf tournament and for representation of the organization's board of directors. They also told the Negro leaders that other demands concerning the city's slum conditions would have to be taken up by the board of directors.

The black coalition contends that if the chamber and tournament backers have the finances to support the big tournament, they should also provide Dayton's poor with the means to implement a program to better themselves.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Bracken's World," a new dramatic television series, will try to capture that Hollywood tinsel and tragedy, ecstasy and agony of which fan magazines and best-sellers are made.

Students of motion pictures, off-screen and on-screen, may have special fun with the series since at least half the plots and half the characters have their roots in reality.

Among members of the big cast—11 regulars—are three neophyte actresses. One is, in the words of writer Bob Lewin, "a sexy, driven girl who is married to a cop." Another, also blonde, is rich and Main Line society. A third is talented and retiring, dominated by a pushing stage mother.

Their real-life prototypes may form the basis of a guessing game.

Then there are situations based on segments of Hollywood history. One show is concerned with a budding love affair between a white starlet and Negro boy, and the studio's attitude. Another is climaxed by a scene in which a great woman star stands up in public and blames the studio head for her personal destruction.

While based on fact, none is the stuff that makes law suits since real episodes provided only an idea and the shows are not carbon copies.

Levin, a former newspaperman who is now associate producer, said the "Bracken" of the title is the studio head and his world, of course, is the studio. The series is being shot at 20th Century-Fox, a great, busting lot, and the series can utilize sets from other productions. Earlier this week, they shot scenes on what used to be "Peyton Place's" wharf, redressed to become a Santa Monica pier.

Eleanor Parker, an attractive, mature actress with a long string of film credits, is the biggest name in the series. She plays the assistant to Bracken, who will never be seen, at least not the first season.

"If he did appear, he would have to be so dynamic and so powerful that he would polarize the other characters," Lewin said.

This week the plot has Miss Parker's character giving an over-the-hill director a chance for comeback. Some scenes, when he returns to directing, require the use of two sets of equipment, with extras manning the lights and cameras shown in the scene.

"It gets a little confusing," said Lewin. "Sometimes when an actor calls 'Cut!' on his cue, the cameraman thinks it's the director and then we have to reshoot the whole scene."

"Bracken's World," has been dropped into the 10-11 p.m. EDT time slot on NBC on Fridays—tough hour for any series since it is a night when a lot of the younger viewers are on dates, bowling or otherwise ignoring television. Therefore it is hand-tooled for the so-called "adult audience."

Nixon Becomes Cheerleader For Apollo 11 Astronauts

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP)—President Nixon turns cheerleader today for a nationwide salute to the three heroes of the Apollo 11 moon landing.

He launches his day with a visit from Frank Borman, the astronaut who served as White House adviser during the historic mission.

And he ends it in Los Angeles tonight, presiding over a nationally televised, flag-waving, dinner extravaganza with 1,400 celebrities honoring Neil A. Armstrong, Michael Collins and Edwin E. Aldrin Jr.

The White House said it would be the largest state dinner ever held by an American president in honor of any public figure.

The President and his entire family will helicopter some 60 miles to Los Angeles in early evening to rendezvous with the three spacemen, who are traveling cross-country on one of Nixon's big presidential jet planes.

Throughout the day, Nixon planned to tune in periodically on the ticker tape parades honoring the astronauts in New York and Chicago.

There was other business on the President's schedule, but the emphasis was on the three men who have given America's prestige a giant boost around the world.

Presidential Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Nixon was "watching very carefully" developments in Vietnam, where the enemy launched an outburst of attacks on 128 allied towns and bases.

The President continued his round of welfare policy messages to Congress with an outline of his plans for sharing about $1 billion of federal revenues with the states and cities.

And Nixon called in California Gov. Ronald Reagan to talk over proposed new welfare initiatives.

The only other scheduled visitor at the Western White House was Commerce Secretary Maurice Stans, summoned to discuss the minority business enterprise program.

Chill, Storms Cover Parts Of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

An autumnlike chill settled in to the Pacific Northwest today and triggered showers and thunderstorms across the northern Rockies and adjacent plains. Drizzle and fog dampened coastal sections of the northwest. Temperatures fell into the lower 40s in interior portions of the region.

Clear skies and mild temperatures dominated most other areas of the country, though generally muggy condition half of the plains.

A severe thunderstorm watch was in effect for parts of the Dakotas and Minnesota in the predawn hours. Winds with gusts up to 63 miles an hour lashed Rapid City, S.D. during a heavy storm Tuesday night.

Nighttime thunderstorms also hit sections of the deep South. High winds uprooted trees in a storm that swept the area south of Athens, Ga. Small hail pelted Atlanta, and more than an inch of rain soaked Jacksonville, Fla.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 43 at Kalispell, Mont., to 98 at Needles, Calif.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Bracken's World," a new dramatic television series, will try to capture that Hollywood tinsel and tragedy, ecstasy and agony of which fan magazines and best-sellers are made.

Students of motion pictures, off-screen and on-screen, may have special fun with the series since at least half the plots and half the characters have their roots in reality.

Among members of the big cast—11 regulars—are three neophyte actresses. One is, in the words of writer Bob Lewin, "a sexy, driven girl who is married to a cop." Another, also blonde, is rich and Main Line society. A third is talented and retiring, dominated by a pushing stage mother.

Their real-life prototypes may form the basis of a guessing game.

Then there are situations based on segments of Hollywood history. One show is concerned with a budding love affair between a white starlet and Negro boy, and the studio's attitude. Another is climaxed by a scene in which a great woman star stands up in public and blames the studio head for her personal destruction.

While based on fact, none is the stuff that makes law suits since real episodes provided only an idea and the shows are not carbon copies.

Lewin, a former newspaperman who is now associate producer, said the "Bracken" of the title is the studio head and his world, of course, is the studio. The series is being shot at 20th Century-Fox, a great, busting lot, and the series can utilize sets from other productions. Earlier this week, they shot scenes on what used to be "Peyton Place's" wharf, redressed to become a Santa Monica pier.

Wanted: Ugly Face For Modeling Job

By JOSEPH WHITT
Central Press Association
Correspondent

LONDON — "We're ugly," said the men posing for the photographer, "and that's why we got this modeling assignment."

Their agent — head of a newly launched agency appropriately named "Ugly" — believes that beautiful models are boring.

"The day of the pretty Hollywood face is finished," the agent said. "I think men and women should be real — even in advertising."

"I think the breakthrough started with Twiggy. She is skinny, bandy-legged and funny-boned, and yet she is a success in England and in the United States. But she isn't ugly enough for our agency."

The "ugly" revolt started with an advertisement the agent placed in a London newspaper: "Are You Ugly? Earn six guineas ($15) for modeling your face."

More than 1,000 applicants telephoned him, but he had to reject most of them because they were much too handsome.

"So I inserted a new advertisement: 'Are You Really Ugly?' This time I discovered over a hundred that I considered suitable."

"It was strange for me," the agent said. "In the past I dealt

UGLY DUCKLING — The homely visage is in demand. This man is posing as an old town crier. His ugly face is his ticket to a job as a model.

only with beautiful people. Now I hired a chap with a lantern jaw and he couldn't believe anyone would pay him for modeling suits."

"One girl burst into tears when I hired her. All her life, she said, she felt as though no one wanted to look at her."

"Ugly" accepts only one applicant in 10. It has distributed a selection of models to London photographers, casting directors and commercial television.

"The responses are growing," the agent said. "We hope to expand our list with about 50 new ugly faces each month. We're not looking only for broken noses, bulging foreheads or jug ears. We're also interested in just plain irregular features."

The agent has discovered some psychological facts about ugly people. "Many more men than women applied. What does this prove? Perhaps men are uglier. Or could it be that women have more vanity?"

"One woman put on weird makeup before applying for the job. Was she pretending that her own face was prettier without the makeup? We took off the makeup and she was even uglier underneath. She got the job."

"I enjoy working with ugly people. It makes me feel I'm handsome. Besides, I feel good when I can reject an applicant by saying, 'I'd love to use you, but you're really too beautiful for the job.'"

Laurelville News

By Mrs. Ray Poling

Funeral services were held in Columbus last Thursday for Mr. John Young who died Monday after several months illness. Mr. Young is survived by his wife, Miriam (Shupe) Young, formerly of Laurelville, one son by a former marriage and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Janet Biery and son David of Columbus spent from Monday to Wednesday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Reid. David is spending this week with his grandparents.

The Pickaway County News of Ashville, Ohio, published by the Hinkle family for many years, discontinued publication of the weekly with the July 31st edition. Increased cost of material and insufficient help in printing the paper was the main reason for stopping the paper. However, the office will do commercial printing of all kind.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rife and family have moved into the property they recently purchased of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Karshner.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Weaver have moved into the former Clyde Boecher property on Laurel St. which they have purchased. Mrs. Loie Tatman has moved into the Kempton apartment vacated by Weavers. The Bowers Apartment house has been purchased by Doc and Myrtle Fox. Mrs. Harry Williams has moved into the upstairs apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Chilcote and sons of Columbus were Sunday evening guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Chilcote.

Mrs. Levi Tatman was Thursday dinner guest of Mrs. Dartha Harmon. Mrs. Tatman has been living at Mildred's Nursing Home in Kingston since suffering a broken hip.

Mr. and Mrs. Dude Hopper of Portsmouth were Saturday dinner guests of Mrs. C. F. Bradney. In the afternoon they visited Mr. C. F. Bradney at the Kerns Rest Home at Circleville.

The Women Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church held their annual come-as-you-are breakfast at the home of Miss Goldie Byers Tuesday morning. There were 25 present.

Mrs. David (Sue Ann) Hinton was a patient in University Hospital several days last week for observation and tests.

Mrs. Dick Karr spent Thursday until Saturday as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rooney and family of Columbus. Mrs. Rooney (Ann Karr) has been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lee McCabe and family of Tarlton were Sunday guests of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McCabe.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lines and family of Reynoldsburg were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith.

Miss Helen Mettler was hostess to a dinner party Sunday in honor of Mrs. Jack Satterfield and children, Jill, John, Bathanie and Kristen of New Canaan, Connecticut. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Milliron of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Milliron and children Ann Marie, Linda, James and Mark all of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. William Goodchild of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Mettler, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Allen and Mrs. Goldie Byers.

Congress Goes On Vacation; Major Work Still To Come

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress takes off today on its first planned summer vacation in modern history, a concession to its younger members and an admission that it will be in session the rest of the year after it returns Sept. 3.

Only a corporal's guard was available for formal adjournment after today's no-business meeting of the House and the Senate. Many got an early start on foreign junkets and others were headed for Los Angeles and a testimonial banquet for the Apollo II astronauts.

But some of the younger members with children who must return to school in September were packed up for beaches and other vacation spots.

It was the insistence of the young fathers that spurred the elderly leaders of Congress early this year to fit a schedule that would allow for planned family vacations.

In past years, vacation planning was a hit and miss proposition. There always was the hope that there would be an early summer adjournment—a hope seldom realized. Leaders had no young families lobbying for a summer recess.

A group of senators, mostly old veterans, put up a protest when the Senate voted on the recess Tuesday, but it was approved 76-14.

With the calendar year almost two-thirds gone, the workload of Congress for 1969 still lies ahead.

A landmark tax reform bill has passed the House but not the Senate. So has a bill extending the elementary and secondary education program.

The official "status of major bills" lists two laws enacted. One increased the national debt limit; the other continued the income tax surcharge first imposed last year.

It doesn't record the fact that earlier the Congress boosted government officials and took no steps to stop a salary hike for its own members from $30,000 to $42,500 a year.

None of the dozen or so annual appropriation bills for the fiscal year that started July 1 has been enacted.

There has been no final action on legislation to control crime, abolish the electoral college, restrict cigarette advertising, reorganize congressional procedure and extend the anti-poverty program.

More than 1,000 applicants telephoned him, but he had to reject most of them because they were much too handsome.

"So I inserted a new advertisement: 'Are You Really Ugly?' This time I discovered over a hundred that I considered suitable."

"It was strange for me," the agent said. "In the past I dealt only with beautiful people. Now I hired a chap with a lantern jaw and he couldn't believe anyone would pay him for modeling suits."

"One girl burst into tears when I hired her. All her life, she said, she felt as though no one wanted to look at her."

"Ugly" accepts only one applicant in 10. It has distributed a selection of models to London photographers, casting directors and commercial television.

"The responses are growing," the agent said. "We hope to expand our list with about 50 new ugly faces each month. We're not looking only for broken noses, bulging foreheads or jug ears. We're also interested in just plain irregular features."

The agent has discovered some psychological facts about ugly people. "Many more men than women applied. What does this prove? Perhaps men are uglier. Or could it be that women have more vanity?"

"One woman put on weird makeup before applying for the job. Was she pretending that her own face was prettier without the makeup? We took off the makeup and she was even uglier underneath. She got the job."

"I enjoy working with ugly people. It makes me feel I'm handsome. Besides, I feel good when I can reject an applicant by saying, 'I'd love to use you, but you're really too beautiful for the job.'"

Congress Goes On Vacation; Major Work Still To Come

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress takes off today on its first planned summer vacation in modern history, a concession to its younger members and an admission that it will be in session the rest of the year after it returns Sept. 3.

Only a corporal's guard was available for formal adjournment after today's no-business meeting of the House and the Senate. Many got an early start on foreign junkets and others were headed for Los Angeles and a testimonial banquet for the Apollo II astronauts.

But some of the younger members with children who must return to school in September were packed up for beaches and other vacation spots.

It was the insistence of the young fathers that spurred the elderly leaders of Congress early this year to fit a schedule that would allow for planned family vacations.

In past years, vacation planning was a hit and miss proposition. There always was the hope that there would be an early summer adjournment—a hope seldom realized. Leaders had no young families lobbying for a summer recess.

A group of senators, mostly old veterans, put up a protest when the Senate voted on the recess Tuesday, but it was approved 76-14.

With the calendar year almost two-thirds gone, the workload of Congress for 1969 still lies ahead.

A landmark tax reform bill has passed the House but not the Senate. So has a bill extending the elementary and secondary education program.

The official "status of major bills" lists two laws enacted. One increased the national debt limit; the other continued the income tax surcharge first imposed last year.

It doesn't record the fact that earlier the Congress boosted government officials and took no steps to stop a salary hike for its own members from $30,000 to $42,500 a year.

None of the dozen or so annual appropriation bills for the fiscal year that started July 1 has been enacted.

There has been no final action on legislation to control crime, abolish the electoral college, restrict cigarette advertising, reorganize congressional procedure and extend the anti-poverty program.

Expos Stun Cincinnati Reds; Sweep Twinbill, 8-3, 5-2

By HERSHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
The rain that fell on Phil Niekro and the Braves in Atlanta Tuesday night was nothing compared to the unexpected storm the Cincinnati Reds encountered in Montreal.

And when the skies had cleared and the dust had settled, the crowded race in the National League West was as muddled as ever.
By sweeping a twin-nighter from Cincinnati 8-3 and 5-2, the lowly Expos sliced the Reds' lead in the NL West to two games over Atlanta, 2½ over Los Angeles and San Francisco and three over Houston.

Meanwhile, for the second time in two weeks, the Braves and Niekro were rained out a big lead—this time 5-0—in the fourth inning of a game with Philadelphia.
Elsewhere, Los Angeles shocked St. Louis 5-2, San Francisco beat Pittsburgh 6-3, Houston shaded New York 8-7 and the Chicago Cubs blanked San Diego 4-0, stretching their lead in the NL East to 8½ games over the Mets and Cardinals.

The Reds, who outlasted a 2½-hour tornado to beat Philadelphia Saturday night, invaded Montreal with a five-game winning streak while the Expos had lost six in a row. But the Expos, led by Coco Laboy, started their thunder in the first inning of the opener and never let up.
Laboy drove in five runs, three in the first game, and pitcher Steve Renko, who won the opener with a seven-hitter, Rusty Staub and Adolfo Phillips belted solo homers, while the homer-happy Reds settled for two-run shots by Alex Johnson in the opener and Johnny Bench in the nightcap.

Laboy singled in two runs in the very first inning of the evening and added another with a grounder in the third as the Expos grabbed a 6-0 lead. He had a run-scoring single in the first inning of the nightcap and doubled home the final run in the seventh.
Renko went the route in the first game and Bill Stoneman worked into the eighth of the finale, when the Reds loaded the bases. Elroy Face got Pete Rose on a grounder for the final out of the inning and retired the side in order in the ninth.

Manager Gene Mauch of the Expos wasn't about to feel sorry for the Reds.
"The only thing I care about is how well we play," he said. "I don't really care who it's against, as long as we pay well. Hell, their (Cincinnati's) whole line-up is tough to stop. Against that club, you want to get all the runs you can."

Niekro, seeking to become the NL's first 17-game winner, was breezing along when the rains came in Atlanta. It was exactly two weeks to the night after Niekro had an 8-0 lead, washed out in Philadelphia.
Another loser was Henry Aaron, whose 30th home run went down the drain.
Manny Mota tied the score with a bases-loaded sacrifice fly in the eighth inning and Jim LeFebvre followed with a three-run homer as the Dodgers turned back St. Louis and prevented the Cards from moving past the Mets into second place in the East. The four-run uprising came against reliever Joe Hoerner.
Bill Sudakis homered for the Dodgers in the sixth as they started their comeback from a 2-0 deficit.

Jim Davenport drove in three runs with two singles and a double as the Giants tripped the Pirates and Gaylord Perry, 15-8, struggled to a 10-hit triumph and survived homers by Willie Stargel and Jose Pagan.
The Astros continued to plague the Mets, whipping them for the eighth straight time. Curt Blefary put Houston ahead 6-5 in the sixth with a three-run homer and prevented the tying run from scoring in the eighth with a fine defensive play.

Chiefs Hoping To Claim Division

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs won more football games in 1968 than they ever had before, yet the rewards of victory eluded them. They couldn't even lay claim to a divisional championship.

The Chiefs, American Football League champions in 1962 and 1966, tied Oakland for the Western Division title with a 12-2 record, then lost to the Raiders 41-6 in a playoff game.

It is the bitter memory of that defeat which the Chiefs hope to erase in 1969.
"We'll definitely be improved, but it will be a real challenge to duplicate our record of 1968," says Coach Hank Stram, who has guided the Chiefs since they began operations in 1960 as the Dallas Texans and who was named AFL Coach of the Year by The Associated Press last year.

"Ours is a veteran team which should improve because of the normal development of our younger players, and because we hope to avoid the injuries which hampered us in 1968," Stram adds.
Injuries to receivers Otis Taylor and Frank Pitts and fullback Curtis McClinton forced Stram to do a lot of patchwork a year ago. In one game with Oakland, Stram reverted to the straight-T. The Chiefs attempted only three passes and beat the Raiders 24-10.

Taylor still is troubled by leg problems and Stram admits, "We don't know for sure how quickly it will heal." Gloster Richardson likely will start the season as flanker in place of Taylor.
Pitts has recovered and will be at split end.
McClinton lost his fullback job to 1968 rookie standout Robert Holmes and has been shifted to tight end. He is battling veteran Reg Carolan there, and Carolan appears to be winning the job held for years by Fred Arbanas.

Arbanas has been shifted to offensive tackle and is running behind regular right tackle Dave Hill. "There is every indication that Freddie will do an outstanding job as offensive tackle," Stram said. "He is improving steadily and making the adjustment well."
Main losses are offensive lineman Curt Merz, who retired, and defensive tackle Ernie Ladd who underwent knee surgery and will sit out this season because the knee did not respond to treatment.

Merz' retirement will become important, Stram said, "only if there are injuries to key offensive linemen; then we'll miss his experience." Ladd's loss is not considered so vital, largely because the Chiefs are so high on Curley Culp, second-year man from Arizona State.
"He's making great progress and should fortify defensive tackle extremely well," Stram said of Culp, a 265-pounder.

Len Dawson will again direct the Chiefs' offense with backup help from Jack Lee, Dawson, considered by the Chiefs to be pro football's most underrated quarterback, now is 34 but led the AFL in passing last year for the fourth time.
Mike Garrett, Wendell Hayes and Holmes will shoulder most of the running load. Holmes was No. 2 in the AFL last year with 866 yards rushing.

Bills Pay O.J. $350,000, Don't Have Helmet To Fit

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Buffalo Bills shelled out a reported $350,000 to nail O. J. Simpson's signature to an American Football League contract but forgot one minor detail—a helmet.

Even before the heralded Heisman Trophy winning half-back from Southern California trotted out to make his pro debut in a scrimmage Tuesday at the Bills' training camp in Niagara Falls, N.Y., it was revealed that Buffalo didn't have a helmet which would fit the elongated face of Simpson.

So until a specially-made helmet is airlifted in from California, the highest paid rookie since the merger of the AFL-National League in 1966, who signed a four-year pact Saturday after holding out four weeks, will not be able to join in any contact drills.

However, the 22-year-old Simpson did work out in a two-hour drill wearing uniform No. 36. Simpson wore No. 32 in college but that number is worn by veteran running back Gary McDermott.

The Bills, 1-1 in exhibition play, will face the NFL Detroit Lions Friday in an exhibition game.
"I'll be ready to play Friday. Mentally though it may be difficult because this is a difficult system to learn here," Simpson said.
Elsewhere in the AFL, the champion New York Jets, 1-1, worked out in preparation for their Sunday game with their arch-rivals of the NFL, the New York Giants, 0-1.

And Coach Weeb Ewbank of the Jets said Joe Namath will play at least half of the game in the top and the bottom.

THE TOP AND THE BOTTOM—The Eagles' Ben Hawkins is sent flying as Atlanta's cornerback, Ken Reeves, subdues him during NFL exhibition in Portland, Ore., won by the Atlanta Falcons, 13 to 7.

Kilkenny, A's Top California, 7-2

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
It was a bad day for Oakland, despite Reggie Jackson's 42nd home run, and it was a dismal day for Minnesota, despite peace in the clubhouse, but it was a great day for the Irish.

What else could you call it when Rory Erin Kilkenny is born and father Mike celebrates by pitching Detroit past California 7-2 with a three-hitter?
And if that wasn't enough, Rory Erin is the first child of the Kilkennys and father Mike marked that first with his first complete game, first hit and first run batted in in the major leagues.

While the elder Kilkenny must have been doing an Irish jig, Oakland and Minnesota had little to swing about.
The A's wasted Jackson's tying two-run homer in the ninth inning when Baltimore scored in the bottom of the ninth for a 4-3 victory, and the New York Yankees hit the Twins harder than the Twins hit themselves in a 10-3 rout.

In other games, the Chicago White Sox blasted erring Boston 10-5, Cleveland edged Seattle 6-5 and Kansas City beat Washington 6-3.
Kilkenny, 2-2, had things much easier against the Angels than he did earlier in the day when he rushed his wife 15 miles to the hospital and beat the stork by nine minutes at 12:59 p.m. After his five-pound son appeared—six weeks premature—he went home, sent his wife some roses, let the dog out and went to the ballpark to celebrate.

Making his fourth start of the season after specializing in the minor leagues as a reliever, the 24-year-old stringbean left-hander did lose his first major league shutout when Bubba Morton homered in the fifth inning.
By then the Tigers had a 3-0 lead and Kilkenny and Tom Tresh rapped run-scoring singles in the fifth. Tresh added his ninth homer in the seventh.
Kilkenny finished with 10 strike outs and then raced out of the clubhouse to the hospital.

Jackson, without a homer in his last 55 trips to the plate and 38 at bats, followed a walk to Jose Tartabull with none out in the ninth with his belt over the right centerfield fence off winner Pete Richert, 6-3. It tied the game 3-3, but the Orioles, going for their seventh victory in eight games, didn't stay impressed.
In the bottom of the ninth with one out, Curt Motton walked, Don Buford, who homered earlier, beat out a bunt and Paul Blair singled in the winning run.
The loss ruined Oakland's chance to take over the lead in the West Division from the Twins, who stopped swinging punches at each other and instead took one on the chin from the Yankees.

The Yankees, winning their ninth game in 10 starts, scored eight runs in the seventh inning—their biggest inning since July 2, 1965—to overcome a 3-2 deficit. Gene Michael tripled in the tying run and reliever Al Worthington waked in two runs. After Len Boechner's run-scoring hit, Bill Robinson singled in two runs and Horace Clarke tripled for the final two.
A two-run homer by loser Jim Kaat, 11-9, and a solo shot by Leo Cardenas had put the Twins ahead before they lost their fifth in a row.

The White Sox scored five unearned runs on three Boston errors and a passed ball and Bill Melton and Ken Berry hit solo homers, snapping a six-game losing streak, despite homers by Russ Gibson and Tony Conigliaro of the Red Sox.
Ken Harrelson and Duke Sims stroked consecutive homers, climaxing a tie-breaking five-run fifth inning for Cleveland's victory.
Kansas City overcame Lee Maye's two-run homer in the first inning when Ellie Rodriguez singled home one run and two more scored on consecutive squeeze bunts by Jackie Hernandez and winner Wally Bunker, 7-9, in the second. Rodriguez then singled in the decisive run in the third for a 4-2 lead.

Joe Namath To Be Target Of AFL Defense Players

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (AP) — When Pete Rozelle clasped Joe Namath's hand three weeks ago in New York, strong men shook with envy in nine other cities.
But hope springs eternal in the barrel chests of American Football League defensive linemen. And every one of them will be trying harder than ever this season to get within hand-shake—or headlock—range of the New York Jets' gifted quarterback.

Namath, who ended a five-week retirement on June 18, bowing to Commissioner Rozelle's edict that he sell his interest in a controversial New York nightspot, will be a marked man again when the Super Bowl champs launch their

AFL title defense at Buffalo next month.
Although somewhat rusty in exhibitions against the College All-Stars and St. Louis Cardinals, Namath, who missed the first week of training camp, appears to be in good health and promises to be ready when the money goes on the line.
A Namath promise hasn't been taken lightly since last January, when the gimpy-legged passing ace predicted a Super Bowl victory over Baltimore's heavily favored NFL kings... and then directed the Jets to a startling 16-7 conquest.

But the 1968 Jets were a ravenously hungry bunch. Moreover, they escaped injuries to key men throughout the season and protected Namath's battered knees from start to finish with the best pass-blocking in the league.
Whether or not they continue to beat the injury hex, whether or not they keep the pass-rushers from dirtying Namath's white shoes and whether or not they maintain their momentum will determine how they fare in the AFL's improved Eastern Division this year.

The championship cast remains intact with few exceptions, the most notable being offensive guard Bob Talamini, who has retired. Namath again will be throwing to a trio of top receivers—All-AFL split end George Sauer, flanker Don Maynard and tight end Pete Lammons.
Matt Snell, who rambled for 130 yards in the Super Bowl, will share the ball-carrying load once more with explosive Emerson Boozer. Jim Turner, whose 34 field goals last year were the most in pro history, is back to handle the kicking game.

Tackle Winston Hill anchors the superior offensive line, where top draft choice Dave Foley, an All-American tackle from Ohio State, is the only rookie given a chance to win a starting berth.
Gerry Philbin, an all-AFL end, heads the defensive wrecking crew. Larry Grantham, a New York standout for 10 seasons, Ralph Baker and Al Atkinson are the linebackers.

Manager Gene Mauch of the Expos wasn't about to feel sorry for the Reds.
"The only thing I care about is how well we play," he said. "I don't really care who it's against, as long as we pay well. Hell, their (Cincinnati's) whole line-up is tough to stop. Against that club, you want to get all the runs you can."

Niekro, seeking to become the NL's first 17-game winner, was breezing along when the rains came in Atlanta. It was exactly two weeks to the night after Niekro had an 8-0 lead, washed out in Philadelphia.
Another loser was Henry Aaron, whose 30th home run went down the drain.
Manny Mota tied the score with a bases-loaded sacrifice fly in the eighth inning and Jim LeFebvre followed with a three-run homer as the Dodgers turned back St. Louis and prevented the Cards from moving past the Mels into second place in the East. The four-run uprising came against reliever Joe Hoerner.
Bill Sudakis homered for the Dodgers in the sixth as they started their comeback from a 2-0 deficit.
Jim Davenport drove in three runs with two singles and a double as the Giants tripped the Pirates and Gaylord Perry, 15-8, struggled to a 10-hit triumph and survived homers by Willie Stargel and Jose Pagan.
The Astros continued to plague the Mets, whipping them for the eighth straight time. Curt Blefary put Houston ahead 6-5 in the sixth with a three-run homer and prevented the tying run from scoring in the eighth with a fine defensive play.

Chiefs Hoping To Claim Division

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs won more football games in 1968 than they ever had before, yet the rewards of victory eluded them. They couldn't even lay claim to a divisional championship.

The Chiefs, American Football League champions in 1962 and 1966, tied Oakland for the Western Division title with a 12-2 record, then lost to the Raiders 41-6 in a playoff game.
It is the bitter memory of that defeat which the Chiefs hope to erase in 1969.
"We'll definitely be improved, but it will be a real challenge to duplicate our record of 1968," says Coach Hank Stram, who has guided the Chiefs since they began operations in 1960 as the Dallas Texans and who was named AFL Coach of the Year by The Associated Press last year.

"Ours is a veteran team which should improve because of the normal development of our younger players, and because we hope to avoid the injuries which hampered us in 1968," Stram adds.
Injuries to receivers Otis Taylor and Frank Pitts and fullback Curtis McClinton forced Stram to do a lot of patchwork a year ago. In one game with Oakland, Stram reverted to the straight-T. The Chiefs attempted only three passes and beat the Raiders 24-10.

Taylor still is troubled by leg problems and Stram admits, "We don't know for sure how quickly it will heal." Gloster Richardson likely will start the season as flanker in place of Taylor.
Pitts has recovered and will be at split end.
McClinton lost his fullback job to 1968 rookie standout Robert Holmes and has been shifted to tight end. He is battling veteran Reg Carolan there, and Carolan appears to be winning the job held for years by Fred Arbanas.

Arbanas has been shifted to offensive tackle and is running behind regular right tackle Dave Hill. "There is every indication that Freddie will do an outstanding job as offensive tackle," Stram said. "He is improving steadily and making the adjustment well."
Main losses are offensive lineman Curt Merz, who retired, and defensive tackle Ernie Ladd who underwent knee surgery and will sit out this season because the knee did not respond to treatment.

Westfall Mustangs Prepare For First Football Game

The Westfall Mustangs' summer conditioning program is about to end. An average of thirty-five boys have participated in the program for the past two and one-half weeks, and will finish up the program Thursday.

There is still time for anyone interested in improving their physical condition to attend the sessions. The conditioning program is held at 8:30 a.m. Monday through Thursday.

Football equipment will be handed out Thursday morning after the work-out. Everyone interested in playing football for the Mustangs this fall should be at the gym to pick up their equipment.

Bills Pay O.J. $350,000, Don't Have Helmet To Fit

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Buffalo Bills shelled out a reported $350,000 to nail O. J. Simpson's signature to an American Football League contract but forgot one minor detail—a helmet.

Even before the heralded Heisman Trophy winning halfback from Southern California trotted out to make his pro debut in a scrimmage Tuesday at the Bills' training camp in Niagara Falls, N.Y., it was revealed that Buffalo didn't have a helmet which would fit the elongated face of Simpson.

So until a specially-made helmet is airlifted in from California, the highest paid rookie since the merger of the AFL-National League in 1966, who signed a four-year pact Saturday after holding out four weeks, will not be able to join in any contact drills.

However, the 22-year-old Simpson did work out in a two-hour drill wearing uniform No. 36. Simpson wore No. 32 in college but that number is worn by veteran running back Gary McDermott.

The Bills, 1-1 in exhibition play, will face the NFL Detroit Lions Friday in an exhibition game.
"I'll be ready to play Friday. Mentally though it may be difficult because this is a difficult system to learn here," Simpson said.

Elsewhere in the AFL, the champion New York Jets, 1-1, worked out in preparation for their Sunday game with their arch-rivals of the NFL, the New York Giants, 0-1.

And Coach Weeb Ewbank of the Jets said Joe Namath will play at least half of the game in the Yale Bowl at New Haven, Conn.

"He wants to play and he needs to play," Ewbank said. "But we also have to find a No. 2 quarterback. So Babe Parilli and Al Woodall also will play."

Meanwhile, Allie Sherman coach of the Giants, said that Fran Tarkenton will play as long as the Giants have a chance of winning this first ever battle between the two New York teams.
"We're going to play our best football players. We want to get an idea of just how good we are."

We're going to play to win," Sherman said.
Elsewhere, Marlin "The Magician" Briscoe, first Negro quarterback to pilot a major pro football team for an extended time, was made a free agent by the AFL Denver Broncos.

Lou Saban, coach and general manager of the Broncos, said that none of the other nine AFL clubs claimed Briscoe for the $100 waiver price.
The Broncos had placed Briscoe on the injured list last week but Briscoe told reporters he was not injured. He claimed Physicals will be given to football candidates at the gym 7:30 p.m. Thursday. There will be two doctors present to give these physicals.

Those who wish to get their physicals from their family doctor may pick up a physical card at Coach Bill Vance's office in the Westfall building any morning this week. No one will be able to start practice until they have turned in a physical card in completed form.

There will also be a parent-player meeting Thursday, 8:30 p.m. in the Westfall School building. Coach Bill Vance and assistant coach Denny Morris will meet with team members' parents. This meeting will also give parents a chance to learn what the coaches will expect of their boys.

Kilkenny, A's Top California, 7-2

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
It was a bad day for Oakland, despite Reggie Jackson's 42nd home run, and it was a dismal day for Minnesota, despite peace in the clubhouse, but it was a great day for the Irish.

What else could you call it when Rory Erin Kilkenny is born and father Mike celebrates by pitching Detroit past California 7-2 with a three-hitter?

And if that wasn't enough, Rory Erin is the first child of the Kilkennys and father Mike marked that first with his first complete game, first hit and first run batted in in the major leagues.

While the elder Kilkenny must have been doing an Irish jig, Oakland and Minnesota had little to swing about.
The A's wasted Jackson's tying two-run homer in the ninth inning when Baltimore scored in the bottom of the ninth for a 4-3 victory, and the New York Yankees hit the Twins harder than the Twins hit themselves in a 10-3 rout.

In other games, the Chicago White Sox blasted erring Boston 10-5, Cleveland edged Seattle 6-5 and Kansas City beat Washington 6-3.
Kilkenny, 2-2, had things much easier against the Angels than he did earlier in the day when he rushed his wife 15 miles to the hospital and beat the stork by nine minutes at 12:59 p.m. After his five-pound son appeared—six weeks premature—he went home, sent his wife some roses, let the dog out and went to the ballpark to celebrate.

Making his fourth start of the season after specializing in the minor leagues as a reliever, the 24-year-old stringbean left-hander did lose his first major league shutout when Bubba Morton homered in the fifth inning.

By then the Tigers had a 3-0 lead and Kilkenny and Tom Tresh rapped run-scoring singles in the fifth. Tresh added his ninth homer in the seventh.
Kilkenny finished with 10 strike outs and then raced out of the clubhouse to the hospital.

Jackson, without a homer in his last 55 trips to the plate and 38 at bats, followed a walk to Jose Tartabull with none out in the ninth with his belt over the right centerfield fence off winner Pete Richert, 6-3. It tied the game 3-3, but the Orioles, going for their seventh victory in eight games, didn't stay impressed.

In the bottom of the ninth with one out, Curt Motton walked. Don Buford, who homered earlier, beat out a bunt and Paul Blair singled in the winning run. The loss ruined Oakland's chance to take over the lead in the West Division from the Twins, who stopped swinging punches at each other and instead took one on the chin from the Yankees.

The Yankees, winning their ninth game in 10 starts, scored Chuck Smith copped low gross laurels in the Pickaway Country Club Men's League Tuesday night with a two under par 24. M. S. Davis took the low net honors with a 45-27.

Team No. 3 was the winning squad in last night's competition. Members of the team include Steve Brudzinski, Rudy Chelkowski, Speeder Davis, Roger Bennington, Don Stage, Bob Porter and M. S. Davis.

Team No. 9 leads the field with 233 points. Team No. 6 is second with 209½ markers while team No. 2 has 205½ points and team No. 7 has 203.

THE TOP AND THE BOTTOM—The Eagles' Ben Hawkins is sent flying as Atlanta's cornerback, Ken Reeves, subdues him during NFL exhibition in Portland, Ore., won by the Atlanta Falcons, 13 to 7.

Joe Namath's battered knees from start to finish with the best pass-blocking in the league.
Whether or not they continue to beat the injury hex, whether or not they keep the pass-rushers from dirtying Namath's white shoes and whether or not they maintain their momentum will determine how they fare in the AFL's improved Eastern Division this year.
The championship cast remains intact with few exceptions, the most notable being offensive guard Bob Talamini, who has retired. Namath again will be throwing to a trio of top receivers—All-AFL split end George Sauer, flanker Don Maynard and tight end Pete Lammons.

Matt Snell, who rambled for 130 yards in the Super Bowl, will share the ball-carrying load once more with explosive Emerson Boozer. Jim Turner, whose 34 field goals last year were the most in pro history, is back to handle the kicking game.
Tackle Winston Hill anchors the superior offensive line, where top draft choice Dave Foley, an All-American tackle from Ohio State, is the only rookie given a chance to win a starting berth.
Gerry Philbin, an all-AFL end, heads the defensive wrecking crew. Larry Grantham, a New York buster for 10 seasons, Ralph Baker and Al Atkinson are the linebackers worked into the eighth of the finale, when the Reds loaded the bases. Elroy Face got Pete Rose on a grounder for the final out of the inning and retired the side in order in the ninth.

Manager Gene Mauch of the Expos wasn't about to feel sorry for the Reds.
"The only thing I care about is how well we play," he said. "I don't really care who it's against, as long as we pay well. Hell, their (Cincinnati's) whole line-up is tough to stop. Against that club, you want to get all the runs you can."

Joe Namath To Be Target Of AFL Defense Players

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (AP) — When Pete Rozelle clasped Joe Namath's hand three weeks ago in New York, strong men shook with envy in nine other cities.
But hope springs eternal in the barrel chests of American Football League defensive linemen. And every one of them will be trying harder than ever this season to get within hand-shake—or headlock—range of the New York Jets' gifted quarterback.

Namath, who ended a five-week retirement on June 18, bowing to Commissioner Rozelle's edict that he sell his interest in a controversial New York nightspot, will be a marked man again when the Super Bowl champs launch their

AFL title defense at Buffalo next month.
Although somewhat rusty in exhibitions against the College All-Stars and St. Louis Cardinals, Namath, who missed the first week of training camp, appears to be in good health and promises to be ready when the money goes on the line.
A Namath promise hasn't been taken lightly since last January, when the gimpy-legged passing ace predicted a Super Bowl victory over Baltimore's heavily favored NFL kings... and then directed the Jets to a startling 16-7 conquest.

But the 1968 Jets were a ravenously hungry bunch. Moreover, they escaped injuries to key men throughout the season and

LOS ANGELES (AP) — America's lunar astronaut heroes receive unprecedented tribute tonight as President Nixon's guests of honor at a glittering formal state dinner.

The dinner begins at 8:30 p.m., with the entrance of Nixon and astronauts Neil Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr., and Michael Collins.

It ends an estimated two hours later, in the flag-decked, rust-colored ballroom of the Century Plaza Hotel, with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner.

Sharing the head table with the Apollo 11 crew will be the President and his wife, Vice President and Mrs. Spiro T. Agnew and the astronauts' wives.

A celebrity-only list of guests coming to dinner includes an array of government leaders including 44 of the 50 governors, diplomats from 86 nations, aviation and space pioneers such as Charles A. Lindbergh and Hollywood stars.

The Western White House in nearby San Clemente described the affair, to be televised internationally, as the largest formal state dinner ever held for guests from the general public.

Never has such a crowd of celebrities—1,440—gathered in Los Angeles at one time, said a Los Angeles police department spokesman. There was security to match.

The leagues decided each will hold a best three of five championship series to decide the pennant winners, which will meet in the World Series.

These playoffs are to start Oct. 4 in the home city of the American League's East Division winner and the home park of the West Division leader in the National League. After two games at the opening site the teams will switch to the opposition park to complete the series. There will be no idle day for travel.

The World Series is to start Oct. 11.

Pitchers Star In American Legion Clashes

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Pitchers starred Tuesday in the American Legion state baseball tournament.

Lefty Pat Elsass hurled a one-hit shutout as Sidney dropped Kent, 2-0. Elsass allowed only a bunt single while striking out 13 and walking two.

Ashley ace Tim Massie held Cincinnati Budde to three hits while his teammates nipped opposing pitcher Bill Rothan for four hits to eke out a 1-0 win.

Jim Callahan of Lancaster held Bridgeport scoreless for seven innings before a fielding error in the eighth enabled the Belmont County team to tie it up 2-2. But Callahan allowed only three hits through 11 innings while Lancaster batters produced six runs in the final frame for an 8-3 victory.

In other games Tuesday, Conneaut defeated Euclid, 8-2; Miamisburg defeated Portsmouth, 4-2; Elyria clobbered Findlay, 11-2, and Grove City beat Steubenville, 4-1.

Portsmouth, Findlay, Steubenville and Kent were ousted, the losses being their second in the double-elimination tourney.

Scheduled this morning, all with 1-1 tourney records, were Miamisburg vs. Euclid, Elyria vs. Grove City and Budde vs. Bridgeport.

In winners bracket this afternoon, Conneaut goes against Ashley and Lancaster meets Sidney.

The Bills cut veteran fullback Bob Cappadona and rookie line-backer Mark Proskine of North-western.

Over in the Chicago Bears' NFL camp offensive guard George Seals walked out, and owner George Halas said Seals would be fined $200 for every practice day he misses.

Seals left camp Monday night but would not discuss the reason. Reportedly, it was a contract dispute.

Cook To Start For Cincy Bengals
Coach Paul Brown said Tuesday that the Cincinnati Bengals' No. 1 draft selection — Greg Cook—would start at quarterback Saturday night against Kansas City.

"The idea of announcing this in advance is that if he knows it, he should tend to get himself ready mentally," Brown said.

The Bengals meet the Chiefs in Jackson, Miss., in their second pre-season game. They dropped their first 21-13 to Boston Sunday.

Brown also said that line-backer Bill Bergey, Cincinnati's second draft choice, will start and call defensive signals.

IRVING, Tex. (AP) — Lida "Fee Fee" Mathews of Portsmouth, Ohio, shot an 82-77-159 Tuesday and was among 32 qualifiers in the 69th annual U.S. Women's Golf Championship at Los Colinas Country Club.

SPORTS Highlights

BOSTON (AP) — "The Celtics are synonymous with championships. Red Auerbach is synonymous with championships. We think it's a privilege to pay $6 million for the team."

Thus the president of a New York holding company explains his group's thinking in paying what he believes to be the highest price ever for a basketball franchise—topping the $5 million spent by Jack Kent Cooke to bring the Lakers to Los Angeles several years ago.

"Our confidence is based on the market location, the historical support of the franchise and the management team," E. E. "Woody" Erdman, board chairman and president of Trans National Communications Inc. added at a news conference announcing the transaction Tuesday.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Royal Kim ($8.20, $4.20, $3) came from last at the head of the stretch to win the $1,200 mile race at Scioto Downs Tuesday night.

The 6-7 daily double brought $110.80; the 1-2 quinnella returned $25.80 and a crowd of 5,032 wagered $181,293.

IRVING, Tex. (AP) — Lida "Fee Fee" Mathews of Portsmouth, Ohio, shot an 82-77—159 Tuesday and was among 32 qualifiers in the 69th annual U.S. Women's Golf Championship at Los Colinas Country Club.

Soaring U.S. Crime Rate Pointed Out In FBI Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — Each American's risk of becoming a victim of serious crime has nearly doubled since 1960, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover reported today.

Hoover listed the statistic, showing more than one out of every 50 Americans was victimized by crime last year, in his 1968 Uniform Crime Reports compiled from records of the nation's law enforcement agencies.

Declaring "there is no comfort in the cold statistics," Hoover said almost 4.5 million serious crimes were reported in 1968—a 17 per cent increase over 1967.

All categories of crime shared in the rise, he said, and population growth alone cannot account for the 122 per cent volume increase in the last eight years.

"Crime continues to outstrip population growth 11 to 1," he said.

Broken down by categories, the figures showed robberies increased 30 per cent from 1967 to 1968; forcible rapes, 15 per cent; murder, 13 per cent; aggravated assault, 11 per cent; serious larceny, 21 per cent; auto theft, 19 per cent; and burglary, 14 per cent.

Hoover said the increase in murders—from 12,090 in 1967 to 13,650 in 1968—reflected the "largest absolute rise over any prior year" in this decade.

As in the past, he noted, firearms were the predominant weapon and the South was the region where the most murders occurred—47 per cent of the national total.

Overall, gun usage in criminal homicides increased 2 percentage points as firearms were the means for committing 65 out of every 100 murders.

Hoover said handguns accounted for 50 per cent of the 1968 homicides, rifles for 6 per cent and shotguns for 9 per cent. An assortment of lethal devices were used in the other 35 per cent.

Long a proponent of gun controls, the FBI director reported that firearms were the weapons for 65,000 assaults and 99,000 robberies as well as the 8,900 murders during the year. Since 1954, he said, the use of firearms in murders has increased 71 per cent, in aggravated assaults 117 per cent, and in robberies 113 per cent.

Juvenile Trio Charged In Two Thefts

Three juveniles, one from Ashville and the other two from Licking County, have been charged by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department in conjunction with two thefts Aug. 4.

Michael Neff, South Bloomfield, reported two magnum wheels missing from his front porch. Damron Auto Parts, Ashville, reported the theft of an automobile transmission and an outboard motor.

The Ashville Marshall spotted the trio in a car Aug. 5 and gave chase. A wreck followed and the boys escaped.

Warrants have been filed on the three juveniles in the Sheriff's Department.

Players Group Plans Friday Auditions

An additional date for tryouts for the Roundtown Players production of "Dear Friends" has been set by director, Angelo Dragonette.

The extra audition will be held 8 p.m. Friday in St. Phillips Parish Hall. Dragonette called the extra session in order to give those interested, who were unable to make preceding tryouts, an opportunity to read for parts.

Four adult male and four female roles are called for in the play. The plot centers around three couples who are attempting to save the marriage of a fourth couple.

The play, "Dear Friends" written by Reginald Rose, is familiar to many as it was performed as a CBS television dramatic special two seasons ago.

ROUND TOWN Player's performance of "Dear Friends" will be held at the Junior High auditorium on October 2, 3, and 4.

Rehearsals are scheduled to begin Aug. 18. For additional information call 474-7439.

Social Security Answers

EDITOR'S NOTE—The U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in an attempt to clear up problems about Social Security will periodically answer questions about benefits and other problems.

Q. Why did it take four months to get my Medicare bills processed when I sent them in January? Will it take just as long next January? If so, how can I beat this time problem?

A. The reason your claim took so long this time was that a great many other people waited until January to send in their bills, and we were flooded with claims. It took some time to dig out. Normally, it takes about seven weeks to process a claim. We suggest you send in your bills when they total about $50, instead of waiting until the end of each year.

Q. I have some old bills for past medical services, but they don't total over $50 for any year. What should I do with them since I don't expect any reimbursement?

A. Submit all your bills now because you may have some bills that can be used in figuring your deductible for two different years. We can still process bills for medical services since October 1, 1967. For example, if you had $18 worth of bills for October 1967 through December 1967, and $42 for all for 1968, the combined amount is over $50 and you would be due some reimbursement. Page 24 of "Your Medicare Handbook" gives more information on this "carry-over deductible."

Q. I do the cooking and washing for a widowed farmer and his children. How do my wages count for Social Security?

A. Domestic work on a farm operated for profit is considered agricultural labor and you are covered under the same rules as other farm employees. That is, you earn Social Security credits if your employer pays you $150.

Q. I was recently discharged from the Armed Forces with a severe disability. Before entering the service, I worked a short time as a farm worker. How much work do I need to be eligible for any Social Security payments?

A. How much work credit is required for a disabled worker depends on his age. If you became disabled before age 24, you need credit for one and one-half years of work in the three years before you became disabled. If you became disabled between age 24 and 31, you need Social Security credits for half the time after you are 21 and before you became disabled. To get disability benefits if you become disabled at 31 or later, you must be fully insured and have credit for five years of work in the ten years just before you became disabled.

Junior Sheriff Club Planned For Youth

Sheriff Dwight E. Radcliff announced the organization of a Junior Deputy Sheriff's League in Pickaway County.

To be eligible for the organization a boy must be 11 to 15 years of age. The program, which is nationwide, has been in other Ohio counties and has been reported very successful.

Registration for the program will be Saturday, Aug. 16, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the basement of the Pickaway County court house. The training will start on the following Saturday and will be from 12:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday afternoons for five weeks.

Each boy must be accompanied by at least one of his parents for the registration.

Upon the completion of the training, each boy will receive a junior deputy badge and a membership card. Activity for the boys will be planned at a later date, such as visits to the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation Laboratory in London, Ohio.

Cook Raps FTC Ruling

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Liquor Control Director Donald D. Cook says new rules on giveaway promotional games adopted by the Federal Trade Commission are weak.

The FTC announced new regulations Tuesday designed to ban deceptive practices in games of chance used as sales promotions. It requires sponsors to clearly and conspicuously state the exact number of prizes and the odds on winning.

Cook said the regulations, which become effective in 60 days, "would be extremely difficult, almost impossible, to police." One FTC commissioner, Philip Elman, contended that giveaway games should be outlawed entirely, and Cook agreed.

He labeled promotional giveaway games, both by supermarket chains and service stations, "a massive fraud and deception of the public."

Officially, Cook's department is concerned only with games in supermarkets which have carryout permits to sell beer and wine. Ohio law prohibits such permit holders to sponsor games of chance.

Claim Kennedy Deliberately Left Accident

WASHINGTON (AP) — Columnist Jack Anderson said today chance disclosure that an auto had been found overturned under a bridge was the factor that decided Sen. Edward M. Kennedy to report to police his involvement in an accident fatal to a pretty blonde secretary.

An aide said Kennedy would have no comment on the column.

The secretary, 28-year-old Mary Jo Kopechne, drowned last month when a car driven by Kennedy toppled off a bridge on Chappaquiddick Island, near Martha's Vineyard.

Kennedy told police in Edgartown, Mass., that he made repeated attempts to pull Miss Kopechne from the submerged auto.

"No doubt," Anderson wrote, "he (Kennedy) did his best, risking his own life, to save Mary Jo."

"After it was too late to save Mary Jo," Anderson continued, "he felt it might still be possible to save his presidential dream."

Accordingly, Anderson said, he walked back to the vacation cottage where Miss Kopechne, a one-time secretary in the office of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, had been a guest.

At the cottage, Anderson said, Kennedy told a cousin, Joseph Gargan, and a friend, Paul Markham, what had happened. Subsequently, Anderson said, Gargan and Markham obtained a boat and ferried Kennedy to Martha's Vineyard.

Kennedy himself has said he swam from the island.

"Kennedy," the columnist wrote, "managed to slip unnoticed into the Shiretown Inn (in Edgartown), where he was registered. To establish his alibi, he left his room, dressed and dry, to talk to the room clerk. Kennedy complained about the noise next door, then asked for the time, explaining he had misplaced his watch."

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — A 4-year-old boy drowned in the bathtub when he was left unattended for a few minutes at his home on Fifth Street Tuesday night.

The child was the son of Mrs. Joyce Fite.

Girls Nastier, Report Shows

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Girls apparently are running afoul of the law more than they used to.

State courts committed 3,269 juveniles to the Ohio Youth Commission during the 12-month period ending July 1. This was almost 12 per cent higher than the previous year.

"This is the first significant increase since 1966 and is due largely to an increase in commitment of girls," said Commission Director Daniel W. Johnson.

Soaring U.S. Crime Rate Pointed Out In FBI Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — Each American's risk of becoming a victim of serious crime has nearly doubled since 1960, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover reported today.

Hoover listed the statistic, showing more than one out of every 50 Americans was victimized by crime last year, in his 1968 Uniform Crime Reports compiled from records of the nation's law enforcement agencies.

Declaring "there is no comfort in the cold statistics," Hoover said almost 4.5 million serious crimes were reported in 1968—a 17 per cent increase over 1967.

All categories of crime shared in the rise, he said, and population growth alone cannot account for the 122 per cent volume increase in the last eight years.

"Crime continues to outstrip population growth 11 to 1," he said.

Broken down by categories, the figures showed robberies increased 30 per cent from 1967 to 1968; forcible rapes, 15 per cent; murder, 13 per cent; aggravated assault, 11 per cent; serious larceny, 21 per cent; auto theft, 19 per cent; and burglary, 14 per cent.

Hoover said the increase in murders—from 12,090 in 1967 to 13,650 in 1968—reflected the "largest absolute rise over any prior year" in this decade.

As in the past, he noted, firearms were the predominant weapon and the South was the region where the most murders occurred—47 per cent of the national total.

Overall, gun usage in criminal homicides increased 2 percentage points as firearms were the means for committing 65 out of every 100 murders.

Hoover said handguns accounted for 50 per cent of the 1968 homicides, rifles for 6 per cent and shotguns for 9 per cent. An assortment of lethal devices were used in the other 35 per cent.

Long a proponent of gun controls, the FBI director reported that firearms were the weapons for 65,000 assaults and 99,000 robberies as well as the 8,900 murders during the year.

Since 1954, he said, the use of firearms in murders has increased 71 per cent, in aggravated assaults 117 per cent, and in robberies 113 per cent.

Juvenile Trio Charged In Two Thefts

Three juveniles, one from Ashville and the other two from Licking County, have been charged by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department in conjunction with two thefts Aug. 4.

Michael Neff, South Bloomfield, reported two magnum wheels missing from his front porch. Darnon Auto Parts, Ashville, reported the theft of an automobile transmission and an outboard motor.

The Ashville Marshall spotted the trio in a car Aug. 5 and gave chase. A wreck followed and the boys escaped.

Warrants have been filed on the three juveniles in the Sheriff's Department.

Junior Sheriff Club Planned For Youth

Sheriff Dwight E. Radcliff announced the organization of a Junior Deputy Sheriff's League in Pickaway County.

To be eligible for the organization a boy must be 11 to 15 years of age. The program, which is nationwide, has been in other Ohio counties and has been reported very successful.

Registration for the program will be Saturday, Aug. 16, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the basement of the Pickaway County court house. The training will start on the following Saturday and will be from 12:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday afternoons for five weeks.

Each boy must be accompanied by at least one of his parents for the registration.

Upon the completion of the training, each boy will receive a junior deputy badge and a membership card. Activity for the boys will be planned at a later date, such as visits to the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation Laboratory in London, Ohio.

Claim Kennedy Deliberately Left Accident

WASHINGTON (AP) — Columnist Jack Anderson said today chance disclosure that an auto had been found overturned under a bridge was the factor that decided Sen. Edward M. Kennedy to report to police his involvement in an accident fatal to a pretty blonde secretary.

An aide said Kennedy would have no comment on the column.

The secretary, 28-year-old Mary Jo Kopechne, drowned last month when a car driven by Kennedy toppled off a bridge on Chappaquiddick Island, near Martha's Vineyard.

Kennedy told police in Edgartown, Mass., that he made repeated attempts to pull Miss Kopechne from the submerged auto.

"No doubt," Anderson wrote, "he (Kennedy) did his best, risking his own life, to save Mary Jo."

"After it was too late to save Mary Jo," Anderson continued, "he felt it might still be possible to save his presidential dream."

Accordingly, Anderson said, he walked back to the vacation cottage where Miss Kopechne, a one-time secretary in the office of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, had been a guest.

At the cottage, Anderson said, Kennedy told a cousin, Joseph Gargan, and a friend, Paul Markham, what had happened.

Subsequently, Anderson said, Gargan and Markham obtained a boat and ferried Kennedy to Martha's Vineyard.

Kennedy himself has said he swam from the island.

"Kennedy," the columnist wrote, "managed to slip unnoticed into the Shiretown Inn (in Edgartown), where he was registered. To establish his alibi, he left his room, dressed and dry, to talk to the room clerk. Kennedy complained about the noise next door, then asked for the time, explaining he had misplaced his watch."

Boy Drowns Taking Bath

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — A 4-year-old boy drowned in the bathtub when he was left unattended for a few minutes at his home on Fifth Street Tuesday night.

Police said a baby sitter left the child, Charles Fite, in the bathtub while she went to answer the telephone. When she returned, the child was face down in the tub.

The child was the son of Mrs. Joyce Fite.

Girls Nastier, Report Shows

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Girls apparently are running afoul of the law more than they used to.

State courts committed 3,269 juveniles to the Ohio Youth Commission during the 12-month period ending July 1. This was almost 12 per cent higher than the previous year.

"This is the first significant increase since 1966 and is due largely to an increase in commitment of girls," said Commission Director Daniel W. Johnson.

Players Group Plans Friday Auditions

An additional date for tryouts for the Roundtown Players production of "Dear Friends" has been set by director, Angelo Dragonette.

The extra audition will be held 8 p.m. Friday in St. Phillips Parish Hall. Dragonette called the extra session in order to give those interested, who were unable to make preceding tryouts, an opportunity to read for parts.

Four adult male and four female roles are called for in the play. The plot centers around three couples who are attempting to save the marriage of a fourth couple.

The play, "Dear Friends," written by Reginald Rose, is familiar to many as it was performed as a CBS television dramatic special two seasons ago.

ROUND TOWN Player's performance of "Dear Friends" will be held at the Junior High auditorium on October 2, 3, and 4.

Rehearsals are scheduled to begin Aug. 18. For additional information call 474-7439.

Social Security Answers

EDITOR'S NOTE—The U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in an attempt to clear up problems about Social Security will periodically answer questions about benefits and other problems.

Q. Why did it take four months to get my Medicare bills processed when I sent them in January? Will it take just as long next January? If so, how can I beat this time problem?

A. The reason your claim took so long this time was that a great many other people waited until January to send in their bills, and we were flooded with claims. It took some time to dig out. Normally, it takes about seven weeks to process a claim. We suggest you send in your bills when they total about $50, instead of waiting until the end of each year.

Q. I have some old bills for past medical services, but they don't total over $50 for any year. What should I do with them since I don't expect any reimbursement?

A. Submit all your bills now because you may have some bills that can be used in figuring your deductible for two different years. We can still process bills for medical services since October 1, 1967. For example, if you had $18 worth of bills for October 1967 through December 1967, and $42 for all for 1968, the combined amount is over $50 and you would be due some reimbursement. Page 24 of "Your Medicare Handbook" gives more information on this "carry-over deductible."

Q. I do the cooking and washing for a widowed farmer and his children. How do my wages count for Social Security?

A. Domestic work on a farm operated for profit is considered agricultural labor and you are covered under the same rules as other farm employees. That is, you earn Social Security credits if your employer pays you $150.

Q. I was recently discharged from the Armed Forces with a severe disability. Before entering the service, I worked a short time as a farm worker. How much work do I need to be eligible for any Social Security payments?

A. How much work credit is required for a disabled worker depends on his age. If you became disabled before age 24, you need credit for one and one-half years of work in the three years before you became disabled. If you became disabled between age 24 and 31, you need Social Security credits for half the time after you are 21 and before you became disabled. To get disability benefits if you become disabled at 31 or later, you must be fully insured and have credit for five years of work in the ten years just before you became disabled.
